Israel Reports Fresh Attacks From Jordan

U.N. Pushes Plan For Formation Of Police Force

Israel Defies Move, British, French Won't Leave Egypt

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United Nations pushed ahead today with its plans for formation of a Middle East police force despite Israeli defiance and British-French refusal to withdraw from the Suez Canal Zone until the U.N. troops are on the spot.

The General Assembly, after an all-day debate, Wednesday night approved Secretary Dag Hammarskjold's plan for the emergency force to police the cease-fire in Egypt and supervise withdrawal of foreign troops.

The Assembly resolution asked the new U.N. command headed by Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns "to proceed forthwith with the full organization" of the force.

Ask Immediate Withdrawal

The Assembly also adopted a resolution calling on Britain and France "immediately to withdraw their forces from Egyptian territory" and on Israel to pull out of Egypt's Sinai Peninsula and Gaza Strip, the territory she occupied in her sweep into Egypt.

Israel's refusal to cooperate with the U.N. force was announced to the Parliament in Jerusalem by Premier David Ben-Gurion. He said Israel would not agree to the stationing of a foreign force "in her territory or in any of the area occupied by her."

Hammarskjold told the Assembly that if the Israeli troops did not withdraw to the Palestine armistice line after the U.N. force arrived, he would go to the General Assembly or the Security Council "for such measures as those two main organs of the United Nations might decide upon."

Britain's chief delegate, Sir Pierson Dixon, told the Assembly if British and French troops occupying the northern sector of the canal zone "were withdrawn before a United Nations force were to arrive and take control, the separation of (Egypt and Israel) which we have achieved would break down . . . The United Nations force might arrive too late to prevent a new conflagration."

Egyptian Delegate Omar Loutfi has insistently called for the British, French and Israelis to get out at once.

"Nothing can be done until the withdrawal is carried out," he declared.

May Avoid Issue By Serving Out Term As Governor

Lausche Hints He'll Let Democrats Organize U. S. Senate Without Him

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's Sen.-Elect Frank J. Lausche hinted today he might let his fellow Democrats organize the U.S. Senate without him.

In response to a direct question whether he would vote with the Republicans to organize that body, the five-term Democratic governor made this statement:

"I will finish my term as governor of Ohio. If the Senate is not organized by the time I am sworn in, I will then cast my vote, taking into consideration the composition of the Senate, the fact that Eisenhower is president and such other matters as I believe are pertiment."

Lausche let it be known as early as last June that, if elected, he might—under certain circumstances—consider voting with the GOP to organize the Senate if Eisenhower was elected.

His statement today suggested the possibility he might plan to avoid the issue. That suggestion came when he said he plans to finish his term as governor, which ends Jan. 14. Congress convenes Jan. 3.

Lausche's absence from the first 11 days of the new Senate's session could mean the Democrats might go ahead and organize before Lausche becomes a member of it.

Democrats now are assured of at least 49 members in the Senate—including Lausche. Republicans have at least 46. If the GOP wins the undecided contest in Kentucky, it would have 47.

If 48 Democrats and 47 Republicans were to be present when the Senate convenes — with Lausche absent—the Democrats would be in unquestioned control.

Lausche repeatedly said he would vote on Senate organization in the way he thought best after determining the balance of strength and who was elected president.

He recalled difficulties with Republican-controlled Ohio Legislatures and asserted Eisenhower should not bear a similar burden if GOP organization of the U. S. Senate would prevent it.

"I want to repeat what I frequently said in the campaign, that I will be an American first and a Democrat second," Lausche's

Egypt, Allied Troops Still Fight In Suez

U. S. Fears Russian Intervention, Tells Services To Be Alert

LONDON (AP) — Israel reported new attacks by Arab raiders from Jordan along a 30-mile section of frontier today even as United Nations officials sought to put the precarious cease-fire in Egypt on a firm footing.

Sniper fire crackled at Port Said in the Suez Canal zone Wednesday against French and British troops, and one skirmish was fought between an Egyptian patrol and British tankmen.

The United States, fearful of intervention by Soviet "volunteers," was reported urging all possible speed in getting a U. N. police force into the area to back up the cease - fire and supervise withdrawal of French-British forces.

Canada's Maj. Gen. Edson Burns, who has been the U. N.'s chief truce observer in Palestine, arrived in Cairo today to make preparations for taking over command of the U. N. police force.

Russia Offers "Help"

Soviet Russia, which abstained along with all the rest of the Soviet bloc, from the U. N. Assembly vote to go ahead with the emergency police force, has offered to help throw the British, French and Israelis out of Egypt.

There was no fresh indication today as to what Soviet and Red Chinese forces might do. But fears of Russian intervention were heightened by reports that the Egyptians now were feverishly repairing their bomb-battered airfields. Defense Minister Antony Head informed the House of Commons that Britain was aware of this development. He said:

"Our reports are that very active work is now taking place at considerable speed to repair the airfields."

The British and French claimed the almost complete destruction of the Egyptian air force in aerial strikes that proceeded the troop landings in Suez. There would be no point in the Egyptians patching runways unless they expected the arrival of fleets of planes friendly to their cause.

There was no immediate reaction by high Israeli officials to the new border raids from Jordan. But similar attacks from Egypt over a long period were given as the official reason for the lightning operation launched 10 days

Famine Grows In Hungary

Casualties Reported Still Lying In Streets

VIENNA (AP)—Budapest radio announced today famine threatens revolt-torn Hungary. It begged the country in the name of the Russians' puppet government to struggle back to normal.

Rebel radios fell ominously silent. One of the last broadcasts heard here said fighting continued near Budapest "with unchanging violence."

Red Cross Asks Truce

From Geneva, the International Red Cross committee asked the Soviet government to negotiate with the Hungarian combatants for an immediate truce in the battle of Budapest to permit evacuation of wounded.

Numerous casualties of street fighting at noon Wednesday were reported lying where they fell and cut off from medical aid.

Within the Hungarian capital, ringed by Soviet tanks in formations that resembled siege lines, radio Budapest urged all foodstuff workers to return to their jobs at once.

Trucks Carry Signs

So urgent was the situation that the government ordered trucks engaged in transport of provisions to carry big, easily visible signs identifying them as food trucks.

Soviet troops will give every possible assistance to keep such food supplies moving, the broadcast said.

The same broadcast indicated a severe shortage of shoes and clothing. It appealed to pawn shops to return all shoes and clothing worth less than 500 forints (about 45 at the official rate) to their owners without payment of premiums and present the pawn slips to the finance ministry.

The Soviet-installed puppet government of Premier Janos Kadar pleaded for resumption of normal life in Hungary, but admitted the rebellion against Russian domination was not fully crushed.

Faces Increasingly Unfriendly Congress

Democratic Margin Confronts Ike In Both House And Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was confronted today with the prospect of an increasingly unfriendly Congress in the aftermath of his sweeping re-election victory.

Although he defeated Adlai E. Stevenson by more than nine million votes, his party took a political defeat when Democrats won margins in both houses of Congress.

Neither was there concrete evidence to substantiate Eisenhower's contention that "modern Republicanism" had achieved a victory. On the contrary, it appeared that the personal popularity which gave him 41 states and 457 electoral votes did not sift down to the general run of GOP candidates.

Increased antagonism by the new Congress above that displayed by the Democratic 84th to some of Eisenhower's proposals seemed likely to make itself felt primarily on domestic issues.

The narrowness of party margins in both Senate and House made it certain that on most issues final decisions, as in the past four years, would be made by two-party coalitions rather than on strict party lines.

Eisenhower's own victory surpassed his 1952 triumph over Stevenson in both popular and electoral votes.

With some 10,000 precincts not yet tallied, the popular vote was 33,665,121 for Eisenhower to 24,651,472 for Stevenson.

A still undecided Kentucky senatorial race seemed likely to decide the firmness of Democratic control over that body.

In the House, the Democrats had elected 229 members, 11 more than the necessary majority, to the Republicans' 199. Democrats were leading in six of the 7 undecided races.

The present division is 232-203.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas has attributed Eisenhower's ballot appeal in part to what he said was the fact that "in a moment of peril, the American people voted to back up their President and demonstrate to the world that America is united."

Domestic Fight Seen

While Democrats generally shared Johnson's avowed willingness to cooperate on international matters, they left little doubt they will question closely many Eisenhower domestic proposals.

For the President, the cold, hard indications of a second-day look at the balloting results pointed in these varying directions:

Congressional Democrats, assured they could survive a presidential landslide, exhibited new

Pottery Conferees Meet Once Again

Pottery industry labor and management spokesmen were scheduled to meet this afternoon to discuss again a union request for reopening of the working agreement which has been rejected twice by the industry.

Joseph M. Wells, chairman of the labor committee of the U. S. Potters Association, will lead the industry delegation. E. L. Wheatley, president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, will head labor's representatives.

The union announced on Oct. 26, the conference with management was scheduled after two requests from the union for reopening of the wage agreement had been rejected.

The current agreement runs until October, 1957, with a clause prohibiting a reopening unless both sides agree.

Morton Takes Lead In Kentucky Voting

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Republican Thurstan B. Morton took the inside track today in a thrilling down-to-the-wire finish with Sen. Earle C. Clements, assistant Democratic floor leader, for a key U.S. Senate seat.

Morton's edge appeared enough to hand Clements his first defeat in 36 years of political life.

Returns from 3,800 of 4,057 precincts gave Morton 475,861 votes, Clements 473,218.

The race — last to be decided in Tuesday's voting — was punctuated with statements implying that each side suspected the other of voting irregularities.

Morton's struggle took some of the shine off of President Eisenhower's conclusive sweep of the state and the easy win of Republican John Sherman Cooper in the other Senate race.

The Democrats retained a 6 - 2 edge in the House delegation.

Rebel Radios Fall Silent In Hungary

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Rebel radios fell silent today in battle-torn Hungary. One of the last broadcasts heard said fighting near Budapest was continuing "with unchanging violence."

Earlier reports said scattered pockets of insurgents were fighting on against heavy Soviet blows aimed at wiping out the last remnants of Hungary's rebellion.

Radio Free Europe's listening post in Munich reported that the rebel radio transmitters were stilled today.

Study Lisbon School Problem

Levy Beaten, Board To Meet Tuesday

LISBON — The Lisbon School Board will meet Tuesday to determine future action on the need for upping teachers salaries, a request turned down by voters Tuesday in the for of an 8-mill school operating levy.

Village and Center Township voters failed to pass the levy by a vote of 1,101 for and 1,378 against.

Purpose of the levy, officials say, was to raise Lisbon teachers salaries to the level of teacher pay in Columbiana and Leetonia. At present Lisbon instructors are receiving $1,000 per annum less than in the other two exempted village schools.

Whether the board will again put the issue up before voters will be decided at the board meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in the high school. Officials say some definite action will be taken.

The board has requested the eight-mill levy because a two-mill levy currently in operation expires in 1956. Opponents to the levy made an issue of the millage and said its passage would cause too great an increase in real estate taxes.

Defeated in all six village precincts but passed by a small majority in two of three Center Township precincts, the levy follows a rejection by voters of a $414,000 school bond issue last May.

However, a renewal of a 2.5 mill schools operating levy was passed last November by an 80 per cent majority vote.

Paul V. Baxter

Baxter Still Leads Local Senate Race

Completion of the official count of returns in Tuesday's election will be necessary to decide the virtual dead heat between Paul V. Baxter of East Liverpool, Republican, and Sen. Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry, the Democratic incumbent, for state senator in the 20-22nd district.

Complete but unofficial returns in the four-county district reported to the Columbiana County Election Board showed a 49-vote margin for Baxter. A 43-vote lead was indicated in returns yesterday, so Baxter's margin is up by six.

The unofficial tabulation today shows Baxter with 60,306 and Blake with 60,257.

The vote by counties was:

Columbiana: Baxter 24,023, Blake 15,313; Belmont: Baxter 15,810, Blake 19,204; Harrison: Baxter, 4,120, Blake 3,271; and Jefferson, Baxter 16,353, Blake 22,469.

The official count may not be completed and certified to the Board of Election in East Liverpool for two weeks Frank O'Hanlon, board clerk, said this morning. Under law the Columbiana County board receives the returns as the center for the most populous county in the district.

U. S. Asks Speed On U. N. Force

Armed Forces Told To Be On The Alert

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States was reported urging all possible speed today in replacing British, French and Israeli forces in Egypt with peace-keeping troops under the flag of the United Nations.

The U.N. General Assembly voted Wednesday night to create an international emergency force for that purpose, and approved an order to "proceed with the full organization" of it. A dozen nations have offered troops.

Fear Russian Intervention

Unless the switch can be made and the situation brought under control within a few days, official Washington believes there is grave danger of Soviet intervention with "volunteers" on the side of Egypt. This could prolong and spread the conflict, and increase the threat of a third world war.

President Eisenhower and his advisers don't believe the Soviet Union wants the kind of clash which would involve that country and the United States in a global H-bomb war.

But they see grave danger that limited fighting in the Middle East might set in motion forces that could go beyond the control of any government.

U. S. Forces Cautioned

The Pentagon said U.S. armed forces have been cautioned to take "preparatory measures to increase the nation's defense readiness."

A spokesman for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, in telling this to newsmen, said he wanted to put emphasis "on the word defense." He added that "we do not want to be caught flat-footed and at the same time we do not want to take any provocative action which would get us involved."

U.S. commanders at home and overseas have been kept advised of the world situation and given "guidance" in putting their forces in a state of readiness.

Navy Ships Alerted

Some Navy ships, including the giant carrier Forrestal, were ordered to cancel a training maneuver and stay at sea off the East Coast. Similarly, the Strategic Air Command has changed or canceled training operations for the bomber fleet which normally would take planes from bases.

At San Diego, Calif., the Navy said ships based on the West Coast have been alerted to prepare for movement to the Western Pacific.

A Defense Department spokesman said also that there has been some "increasing in the readiness" of the Air Defense Command.

13 Truckers, Four Motorists Fined

Thirteen persons were fined or forfeited bonds totaling $780 for trucking overload charges while four others were fined a total of $135 for traffic violations yesterday, Mayor Dean B. Cranmer reported today.

Those fined for overload charges were: John Walsh, 35, Phillipsburg, N.J., $25; Matthew Mieczkowski, 45, Pittsburgh, $49; Fred Pratchenko, 24, Aliquippa, Pa., $25; Charles Allen, 45, South Euclid, $50; Robert Milligan, 28, Westminster, Md., $25; and Charles Sievers, 33, Uhrichsville, $55.

Others cited for overloads were: Paul Glunt, 30, Hanoverton, $25; Grant Long, 42, Alverda, Pa., $169; James Gadd, 36, Girard, $125; George Schibler, 34, Pittsburgh, $49; Wilber Fisher, 41, Markleysville, Pa., $74; John Howard, 37, Freeport, Pa., $54; and Don Courtney, 36, Alliance, $75.

Those fined for other traffic violations were: James Smith, 20, East Rochester, $25, no operator's license; Frank Boyd, 21, Wellsville, $75, fictitious plates; Robert Zubaty, 23, Lake Milton, $25, no operator's license; and Robert Kelly, 18, 281 Vine St., $10, reckless operation.

Cold Blast Chills Weather Across U. S.

By The Associated Press

The season's most severe and extensive blast of cold chilled much of the nation's midsection today.

The mercury plummeted to 16 degrees below zero in Frazer, Colo. and near the zero mark in Douglas and Laramie, Wyo. Readings in the teens dipped as far south as Kansas and New Mexico. Freezing weather nipped the Texas Panhandle.

Blustery north and northwest winds spread snow flurries southward through the Mississippi Valley and into Missouri and eastward across the Great Lakes.

The sudden chill ended a long spell of mild weather in many places.

Columbiana Council Awaits Action On Gas Rates Raise

Town Planning Commission Ordinance Is Kept Alive

COLUMBIANA — Village council decided Tuesday evening to wait further developments in the proposed raise in rates by the Natural Gas Co. of West Virginia before deciding on a course, and kept alive the proposed ordinance providing for a town planning commission which will come up for final passage at the next regular meeting, Tuesday evening, Nov. 20.

Action on the gas rate will probably be influenced by the attitude of Salem following the recent conference there of persons representing municipalities affected in this area.

A meeting of council as a committee of the whole was set for 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday to consider at the mayor's request the appointment of a planning commission if the measure goes through on the third and final reading Nov. 20.

Replies received by Clerk S. Richard Orr to the inquiry addressed to about 975 citizens by the Chamber of Commerce as to their attitude toward the planning commission proposal showed an overwhelming sentiment in its favor. Of 284 responses, which President Harold Armstrong of the chamber, who was present, said was a good percentage of replies to such an inquiry, 268 were favorable to the proposal and 16 against.

AFTER A LENGTHY discussion council accepted the proposed ordinance on second reading, three readings having been decided upon to afford citizens an opportunity to express themselves. The vote was 4 to 1, one member of council, Clifford Orr, having been absent. Herbert Souder opposed the ordinance because the matter of the expense to be entailed is too indefinite. Charles Fisher, Walter Miller, Gay Zellers and Arthur Myers voted in favor, but Miller strongly intimated that his vote might be different on final passage, largely on the ground that the town could not stand the expense.

A resolution was adopted accepting the county budget commission's allotment of tax money to Columbiana for 1957. The town will receive $24,875, including $6,860 outside the 10-mill limit on which to operate.

Despite the fact that over 300 new homes have been built since 1950, the amount from taxes is less than a year ago, due in some measure to the Pennsylvania Railroad having torn up two tracks through town and the Harrold Tool Co. having built its new plant outside the corporation.

Mayor E. L. Calvin called attention of council to he recommendation of the safety committee that a fourth patrolman be added to the police force. Extra police cost the town $1,369.80 last year and $1,117.05 so far this year. Chief William McGuckin said he had figured out a tentative schedule that would give the town round-the-clock police protection seven days a week with an added patrolman.

A resolution accepted Solicitor Kuhlman's draft of a two-year lease on the small building east of city hall to Mr. and Mrs. John Golden of East Liverpool for a flower and gift shop for $25 a monh.

Council approved temporary use of the assembly room in city hall by a youth group for record hops until permanent arrangements can be made. The adult committee chairmen are Patrolman Lyle Perkins, house; Arthur Carpenter, finance; Wayne Paulson, publicity and tickets; Mrs. Irvin Brittain, chaperone; Mrs. Robert Donbar, refreshments.

FIRE CHIEF Donald Hisey called attention to the expense entailed for the village by the department burning off dead vegetation from several patches about town in the last several years, and a plan of making it a public service to be paid for was discussed. Painting of the fire department floor in the city building was authorized.

Chief McGuckin reported October police department receipts of $820.42 and 11 arrests. Parking meters yielded $594.12, fines and costs in mayor's court were $216.30, and parking ticket fines $10, including eight instances of parking on streets after 2 a. m. without lights.

A final communication from State Highway Director S. O. Linzell obligating the village to maintain the traffic lights placed by the state at Routes 46 and 164 on the Route 14 bypass was accepted and placed on file.

Union Blasts Call For Strike Laws

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio State Federation of Labor has sounded a strong protest against a special session of the Ohio Legislature to consider banning utilities strikes and compelling arbitration of grievances.

Phil Hannah, secretary-treasurer of the federation, called the special session "fantastic." Gov. Frank J. Lausche called the session, possibly for next week, after officials of the struck Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. refused to set up emergency telephone service for the Portsmouth area.

In a letter to the governor, the federation said the session would be "an extravagant waste of state funds and the time of members of the Legislature in attempting to legislate laws based on the recommendations which already have been declared invalid by the Supreme Court."

Portsmouth has been without telephone service since Oct. 16 when company installations in that area were stoned. Some 600 members of the Communications Workers of America (CWA) in parts of 24 southern and southeastern Ohio counties have been on strike against the company nearly four months.

The union has denied responsibility for strike violence.

Deputy Kills Gorilla With One Pistol Shot

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A sharpshooting deputy sheriff took just one pistol shot to kill a 230-pound gorilla which had mauled his handler.

Deputy Lloyd Simmons shot King Kong in the head after the animal bit and clawed the handler, Alva B. Dexter, 49. Dexter is in a hospital with severe wounds on the face and arms.

The gorilla had escaped from his cage at the Leo Carroll animal show in a manner not yet known. He attacked Dexter as the handler brought his evening meal.

King Kong was valued at $2,500.

Newspaper Strike Talks Progress

CLEVELAND (AP) — Representatives of Cleveland's three major daily newspapers, idle for more than a week, were to meet again today with representatives of the Cleveland Newspaper Guild in round-table discussions with Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze.

In a statement issued after a 3½-hour session Wednesday, the mayor said, "both sides are well pleased with progress up to this point." The negotiators had agreed that the mayor, who called the meeting, would be the only one to issue statements on progress in the contract negotiations.

The guild is on strike against The Cleveland Press, an afternoon paper. Production at the Cleveland News and Cleveland Plain Dealer, afternoon and morning papers published by the Forest City Publishing Co., halted when delivery truck drivers refused to load copies with combination name-plates—including the name of the struck Press.

A major issue in negotiations preceding the strike against the Press were the guild's demands for wage increases of $9 to $12.50 weekly, in a two-year contract. Under the old contracts, minimum weekly rate for newsmen having five years experience was $122.50.

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — A fire truck collided with a tractor-trailer Wednesday at the intersection of U.S. 20 and Ohio 127, the Williams County sheriff's office said. The fire truck driver, Harlow Foss, 47, of Aurora, N. Y., was killed. Deputies said the fire truck was one of three being driven to Florida in a convoy.

Double Triumph

The size of the Eisenhower vote avalanche in the presidential election made it plain that Adlai Stevenson would have run as well or better if he had stayed in Libertyville and tended to his flock of sheep.

There is reason to believe, in the light of the popular vote for Mr. Eisenhower in every part of the country where there is a two-party system, that Mr. Stevenson's campaign added to the proportions of his defeat.

Whether or not he can be held personally responsible for the strategy of slurring the President that began at the Democratic convention and reached a climax with the reckless charge that Mr. Eisenhower was responsible for an outburst of international violence in the Midlde East is debatable.

It is not debatable that Mr. Stevenson lent his voice and prestige to many claims that had no basis in fact and that the cumulative effect of trying to fool the American people was a stinging rebuke to his personal candidacy.

There now will be an attempt to belittle the re-election of President Eisenhower by warming over a theme used in the campaign—that he ran as a popular individual, not as a true candidate of the Republican party.

President Eisenhower thinks differently.

He thinks he has scored a triumph for modernists in the Grand Old Party. The fact he thinks so is of the utmost importance. He holds the power of decision.

Like Franklin D. Roosevelt after his re-election in 1936, Mr. Eisenhower now is the undisputed leader of his party. Mr. Roosevelt's first election in 1932 put him in leadership of a loose coalition of political elements with no agreed-on program. His policies did not crystalize until his second term.

President Eisenhower now is where Franklin Roosevelt was in 1936.

He is the undisputed leader of his party as well as the leader of his country. In the two-party system of government, there is no substitute for the strong party leadership that the President has developed and wants to assert.

The Republicanism of the years ahead will be of his making. Mr. Eisenhower has scored a triumph inside the Republican party, as well as inside the United States.

Politics In Motion

When analysts go to work on national election returns, they will find abundant evidence of the endless ebb and flow of the free-running tides of popular government.

The Solid South is not solid any more.

The big-city Democratic machines that were the backbone of party strength under Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman have been broken.

The Jewish vote in New York City cannot be counted on to register itself in some predetermined manner.

The Negro vote divides itself in much the same way as the white vote.

There is no such thing as a Catholic vote.

The farm vote cannot be hog-tied by bleeding-heart orations about farm relief.

The union vote does not follow the advice or the spending habits of politicos who use union funds for private purposes.

National minorities that once identified themselves with their Old World origins now identify themselves with their New World interests.

The straight-ticketvotin g which once was the joy and delight of political bosses is as out of fashion as the Frank Hagues and Tom Pendergasts who built careers on it.

Labels that office-seekers and office-holders wear do not reveal what they once revealed.

Frank Lausche may be counted as a Democratic senator because he was a long-time Democratic governor of Ohio, but he goes to the Senate with the open support of many Ohio Republicans and the open hostility of many Ohio Democrats.

Periodically in the United States there is a makeover of the political stratification that existed in previous elections. The familiar patterns become absolete. The vitality of the two-party system is derived from this.

Analysts will write books about the reshuffling that occurred in the national election of 1956. These will have direct bearing on the political probabilities of 1960, when the two-party system will go into effect in another national election with a new set of suppositions based on voting results this year.

As usual, people are sticking their necks out by asking the age-old question, "What do you want for Christmas?"

The good old tall corn has stopped growing for this year, except on some TV programs.

The wise wife asks for what she knows hubby can't afford so she can compromise on what she really wants.

A judge in Michigan sent a woman to jail for refusing to talk. What a nice wife she'd make.

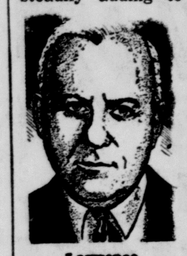
The longer the distance between two pints the safer the driving.

Dulles The Realist

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Secretary Hailed As Great Defender Of U. S.

Soviet Russia has been plotting in the Middle East for several years — stimulating friction and steadily adding to the military burdens of the nations of the West. It is one of the oldest military maneuvers in history — to embarrass a potential enemy on a weak flank.



Lawrence

The success of Communist influence can be seen in the votes cast in the United Nations this week. India and the Arab states, for example, voted to condemn Britain and France for using force in the Middle East, but abstained from voting at all on a resolution intended to condemn the Soviet Union for using force in Hungary.

An obvious aim of the Communist maneuvers in the Middle East has been to give the Moscow regime a free hand in Eastern Europe, where the Western armies for the present stand helpless at the frontiers of the satellite countries unable to assist the free peoples in their crusade for liberation.

ONE WONDERS how much more of a problem would have confronted Britain and France if there had not been a brave army in Israel to ally itself with the West.

The United States government early foresaw the trend in Egypt and tried at first to keep Nasser away from Soviet connections.

But the Egyptian dictator, selfish and ambitious to build an Arab empire of his own, started to conspire with the Communists, who supplied him at the opportune moment with arms through Czechoslovakia. Then naturally America withdrew her aid to Nasser, which had taken the form principally of a tentative plan to build the Aswan Dam.

When this proposal to help construct the dam was withdrawn by the United States, many Democrats in Congress criticized Secretary Dulles for doing so.

When they were asked if they favored a continuance of aid to Nasser, the answer usually given was that the Dulles objective was right but that the method was "abrupt" or "ill advised."

This, however, has been the type of transparently captious criticism of the American secretary of state which has been current throughout the last three years.

MANY OF THE BRICKBATS have come from elements in London and Paris because Mr. Dulles again and again has stood up for American interests and has with prudence tried to avoid an outbreak of hostilities or American involvement in military action.

It will be noted now that the influence interposed by Secretary Dulles impartially and opportunely before the United Nations in the Middle East situation has proved wise.

It has contributed to the pressure on Britain, France and Israel to agree to a cease-fire.

The many crosscurrents of politics and business in Western Europe have to be understood to realize that the barbs tossed at Mr. Dulles, blaming him for Communist misbehavior, were backhanded ways of attacking President Eisenhower.

The fiction circulated by certain college professors in the Stevenson camp that Mr. Dulles has been acting on his own and that the President didn't know what was going on or didn't want certain things done, is one of the most brazen innuendoes of a lack of responsibility ever levelled against an American chief executive.

IT CREPT INTO the recent campaign, too, in a tragic example of misguided partisanship.

Now, when Mr. Dulles is in the hospital recovering from a serious operation, there are some in this country and abroad who are hopeful that, because of his illness, a change will be made in the Department of State.

There are plenty of Trumanites in the department who are eager to see someone who thinks along their lines come in at the top.

None of these critics really knows John Foster Dulles — his strong character, indefatigable energy and will power. Nor do they know Dwight Eisenhower.

Mr. Dulles will continue as secretary of state when he recovers from his present illness — and the man who will insist on keeping him on the job is the President himself. He knows that there is no better informed or better qualified man for the job in America today.

No two men in public life have worked as closely together as Mr. Eisenhower and Mr. Dulles. Not a move of importance has been made by the secretary without the the President's advance approval.

MR. DULLES is one of the great secretaries of state in American history. When he said America would meet future attack by "massive retaliation," he expressed what the military chiefs here have in mind, and it served as a momentous warning that has never been withdrawn.

It was belittled and ridiculed by narrow - minded partisans and by some critics abroad who quibbled about its true meaning.

The American people knew what it meant. They don't have a pacifist or a blind internationalist heading up the Department of State, nor do they want one there.

They have a man who is a realist — a champion of international cooperation, yet, above all else, a staunch American ever watchful of the interests of the people of the United States.

New York Herald Tribune

Double Trouble

Save The United Nations

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

I am told by the United World Federalists of New Jersey, Inc., to save the United Nations. Automatically, the thought would not have occurred to me. Institutions, such as the United Nations, live or die in accordance with the course of events and not because a group in Newark or some other place wants to save it from extinction. If it cannot survive on its own strength, why save it?

Sokolsky

The United Nations cannot deal with the major questions that face mankind under the terms of its present charter.

True, as the United World Federalists of New Jersey say, "The U.N. is dying because it lacks authority to settle disputes among its members."

NO TRUER statement could be made. But we are now witnessing the occupation of member countries by Soviet troops who are shooting down the people like clay pigeons. And we witness a war in the Middle East involving four member states.

Realistically the United Nations is unable to maintain the peace as long as the international Communist movement exists. For actually that internaitnoal Communist movement is also a United Nations and it functions with some of the authority which these United World Federalists of New Jersey would give to the United Nations.

At the same time, the Russians use the veto in the Security Council in pursuit of Russian policy.

Of the two United Nations, the one whose headquarters is in the Kremlin seems to have more authority over its members than the one that sits on the banks of the East River, although after the Hungarian and Polish rebellions conditions may change that somewhat.

THE NEW JERSEYITES want for the United Nations "an international force and national disarmament through the U.N. are essentials of world peace."

But under present conditions such an international force could only be used as Soviet Russia permitted because Soviet Russia is one of five nations that, under the charter, may use the vetc freely, and Soviet Russia does use it freely.

As for disarmament, since 1946, the United States has been striving to find some uniform and decent way of taking the A-bomb and ultimately the H-bomb out of war. Such a proposal can only be practical if international inspection and control are accepted.

Soviet Russia has consistently rejected every practical proposal for inspection from the Baruch plan in 1946 to the Eisenhower proposal of 1955.

PRECISELY how do these gentlemen and ladies from New Jersey expect to get the Russians to accept inspection if Mr. Baruch failed with Molotov and President Eisenhower failed with Khrushchev?

Maybe the United World Federalists of New Jersey, Inc., have a plan which they believe can work, but there is no evidence at hand which would indicate that the Russians will accept any plan which involves inspection.

That has been the weakness of Adlai Stevenson's campaign speeches against the H-bomb.

This column was probably the first which published accounts of the dangers of radioactive strontium in the fall-out of H-bombs. But while such dangers exist, no one has come up with a plan for stopping tests of H-bombs by the United States which would guarantee that the Russians would also stop tests.

As the Stevenson proposition stands, no matter how it is worded, it comes down to a unilateral action by the United States. Bulganin's letter to President Eisenhower did not change that, as Bulganin did not propose a plan for inspection and control.

WITHOUT international inspection, it is impossible to trust the Russians and that also is based upon their habit of violating treaties and agreements which cease to please them.

The point is that while the United World Federalists of New Jersey, Inc., express noble ideas, so did Confucious and Isaiah and others, but the problem always is to make an ideal work and that is not so easy.

Virtue, we know all about, but the practice of virtue is a tough enterprise for anyone who undertakes it.

The U.N. will not die because even conflicting nations find it useful as an international vent, but it is not likely that much will be done to rectify the faults in the charter or to give the United Nations Organization, which is its true name, real authority over its members.

Butter Surplus Melts

By ALAN EMORY

The Agriculture Department is now all set, it said today, with a virtually permanent cure for the old problem of surplus butter--give it away as fast as it comes in.

The government has stopped overseas donation of butter from Commodity Credit Corporation stocks because the amount of the golden spread being purchased or on hand is insufficient to meet commitments.

The long-sought surplus-disposal secret does not necessarily involve increased purchases of butter by the housewife, the department has found, even though market prices are above government support levels. As a matter of fact, butter production is up over last year's figures—but so is the population.

A little more than two years ago the government had a staggering 233,000 tons of butter on hand, but it has determinedly set out to get rid of it. Only 11,900 tons could be sold to domestic commercial enterprises and another 16,800 for commercial export.

There were other sales, but the biggest amounts were given away, or sold at special very low prices to the armed forces, the Veterans Administration and to international agencies and foreign governments, mainly for relief purposes.

Domestic school lunch, institution and welfare use ate up more than one-third of all the butter bought by Uncle Sam from December, 1952, through October, 1956.

Nearly 40 per cent was earmarked for foreign welfare use.

Of the total of 1,026,000,000 pounds of butter, then, at least 76-½ per cent went to American and overseas welfare and school lunch channels free, and most of that in the last two years.

Secretary Benson told the American Butter Institute in Chicago that, while the government might be only temporarily out of the butter business, "The disposal machinery that has been put together during the last 24 months will be held in readiness to resume expeditious movements of any butter the CCC may acquire."

What Mr. Benson did not say was that if the buying got really high, probably most of the disposal, if not all, would be through the one type of "give-away" program the Democrats approve, to welfare and school units.

The implication that the government need not worry about future high butter production, though, could lead to two questions being asked:

1. Why wasn't the give-away put into effeet earlier instead of whacking dairy price supports down 15 per cent from 90 to 75 per cent of parity, all at once?

2. Why, if the government is technically short on butter, does it have to keep price supports down to 75 per cent of parity as a legal minimum? When Congress raised supports to 80 per cent in the farm bill the President vetoed, Secretary Benson raised the roof.

Under the new parity formula dairy products are actually higher than 80 per cent, but the base under which support levels are figured now drops each year instead of remaining steady.

SIDE GLANCES By Galbraith

"Mom, I heard you tell Aunt Martha how lonely it is with me in school—want me to stay home today?"

U. S. Lesson From Korea

By JAY G. HAYDEN

The main reason why the United States, before agreeing to creation of a United Nations police force for the Middle East, insisted that itself or other big five powers be excluded from armed participation, was clearly indicated by the message of Prime Minister Bulganin of Russia to President Eisenhower.

Bulganin, as reported by the Moscow radio, proposed an exclusively Soviet-American air and naval task force, backed by the United Nations, as a "sure guarantee" to stop the fighting among Israel, Egypt and the ex - Suez Canal rulers, Britain and France.

The U.S. all - important insistence is that Russia shall under no circumstances be authorized by international action to send its armed forces — land, sea or air — into Asia, Africa or any other comparably undeveloped region.

Once that dam was broken, it is feared, Communist troops would be flooding in as "peace makers" everywhere, just as they have frequently in territories closer to their military bases. Russia has sent its legions back into Hungary on the excuse that "law and order" had forsaken that martyred country.

The idea of a U.N. police force as a way out of the Israeli - Suez war came originally from Canada's able foreign minister, Lester B. Pearson. Just before he was hospitalized on Saturday Secretary Dulles tentatively approved the Canadian suggestion, although with warning that sending Russian or other Communist policemen into Asiatic countries might not be so good.

After talking by telephone with President Eisenhower, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. American spokesman in the U.N., worked out the final resolution in consultation chiefly with Mr. Pearson and other British Commonwealth representatives. The latter no doubt sounded our opinion of their mother country, although Britain ended by voting neither for nor against the proposal.

The resolution, ordering the strictly small nation U.N. police force, was adopted 57 to 0, with 19 nations unable or unwilling to declare themselves either way.

Conspicuous among the latter group of abstainers were Russia and all of its satellite brook — Albania, White Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania, Hungary, the Ukraine — along with Egypt, Israel, Britain and France.

Arab countries split about even between supporters of the police force and abstainers.

A secondary reason why the United States looked for a way out of direct police duty no doubt was its experience in Korea. That also was labeled a "police action" but with the U.S. providing 90 per cent of both the non - Korean manpower and cash expenditures for the operations.

Even now the American government is spending a billion dollars or more a year to foot the bill for South Korean protection and economic rehabilitation.

In contrast, the plan now proposed should be highly attractive to American taxpayers. Under it no American manpower would participate in fighting units, but there would be American support in other ways.

Speaking on television Sunday evening, Sherman Adams, chief of staff to President Eisenhower, explained that the U.S. would be willing to supply facilities, such as transportation, housing and food and a fair share of other maintenance items.

While reports from the Suez-Israeli front so far are highly contradictory, it seems fairly certain that at least the British and French would be willing to turn the job of policing Suez Canal operations over to any offered international force once they have properly chastized one Gamal Nasser.

TRAINED BEARS AND ACROBATS!!!

JOE E. BROWN is out with a book "Laughter Is A Wonderful Thing" and it tells a gripping story of his remarkable rise from a kid acrobat to the heights of the amusement world.

Joe joined a troupe of tumblers at the age of 10, getting $1.50 per week. . . . "The Five Marvelous Ashtons." Not until he had been with it as a child acrobat for some years did he have any idea he could be funny.

He made his first appeal for laughs with the outfit in Harbureger's Hall, Newark, N.J. . . . Got his first boost when Sime Silverstein in Variety said, "Looks like a real comedy acrobatic turn that needs little to make the big time."

His first big chance on roadway came when Harry Cort produced "Listen Lester," a fabulous hit of the times, but he got a heart-breaking twist when his first night was barred by the Actors Strike.

Joe, risking all, joined Equity. . . . But after it was over Cort signed him again and he scored sensationally.

JOE WAS BORN in the little town of Holgate, Ohio, and lived in "Smokey Row," so named because it was across from the railroad roundhouse . . . . "I had two problems as a kid: how to get enough to eat and how to help out at home," he writes.

Which brings us back to the days not too long ago when it was every kid's desire to be of help in making it easier for pop to make both ends meet. . . . When it was routine to get some sort of job after school and chip in a little toward home support.

He tells of his paper route, the daily rush to a back alley in St. Clair Street to the newsdealer "where there were always many kids in line and seniority or fists determined a kid's position in line."

It takes us back to Washington Avenue, back home, where we lined up at Tommy Maher's for the papers under the exact conditions. . . . We can still feel the impatience with which we watched down the street for the first sign of Maher, approaching with the papers, at top speed, by horse and buggy. . . . Them wuz the days.

Bankers Urged To Make Studies Of Project

Seaway Seen Offering Many Advantages For Industry

CLEVELAND (AP)—The administrator of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. today urged "the banking fraternity" to take the initiative in making studies of the Seaway project.

The Seaway, he said, might help business leaders expand markets for their products.

Lewis G. Castle said in a talk prepared for a meeting of bankers, "Since you gentlemen act as counsellors and advisors to your many customers, it might be well for some members of your staff to examine the values of the St. Lawrence navigation project in the light of its advantages to industrial enterprise in your area."

He said that in Chicago estimates had been made that use of the St. Lawrence Seaway, scheduled to open to navigation in the spring of 1959, could reduce shipping costs on lard to Antwerp by 38 per cent, automobiles to Rotterdam by 17 per cent and construction machinery to England by 20 per cent.

Importers would share the same savings, said Castle, mentioning, among other things, a possible reduction of 24 per cent in the cost of bringing whisky from England.

"No opportunity should be lost," he declared, "to examine the possibility of reduction in transportation and delivery costs, and it may not be too early to begin such a study.

"I recommend that the banking fraternity take initiative in that direction as an aid to the economic stability of your individual communities. . . .

"Perhaps the studies and research recommended above will encourage your business leaders to find ways and means of marketing their products more economically, and possibly find new markets for the distribution of their manufactured product."

In his talk before a group from the Ohio Bankers Assn., Castle predicted that with increasing traffic on inland waterways "a new form of transportation facility like the St. Lawrence Seaway should do no appreciable damage to the railways, the motor freighters on our highways, or the seaboard ports which have for so long handled large volumes of cargo tonnage."

Castle commented that among other benefits of the Seaway will be the creation at Massena, N.Y., of a tourist spot which "should eventually equal in prominence and popularity the fascinating picture of nature's beauty at Niagara Falls."

He said last summer more than 200,000 tourists visited the construction works for power and navigation projects at Massena.

As of today, said Castle, the United States and Canada each has finished about one-fifth of its part of the massive project. Men and machines are "working around the clock six days a week" to meet a target date of July 1958 for inauguration of 14-foot navigation and the generation of hydroelectric power, he added.

'Community Day' Observance Is Held By Church Women

The United Council of Church Women of Salem joined with more than 10 million Christian women throughout the world in celebration of "World Community Day" Friday.

The international theme, "Our Rights as Human Beings" was carried out by Mrs. Harold Deitch in her devotions and by Mrs. Raymond Kulow, guest speaker at the gathering in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Oliver Davis sang "My Task," accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Timm.

Mrs. Byron Maxson explained the projects which the offering of the day supported. Mrs. Ralph Walton held a dedication service for the large donation of clothing and supplies given by the church women.

Mrs. Kulow gave a talk concerning the Book of Ruth. She pointed out that the principals and situations described in this Biblical story are as applicable today as they were centuries ago. She explained that the book contained lessons on practically every phase of living as found in our lives today.

Rev. Richard Freseman, pastor of the host church, closed the meeting with prayer and benediction.

Mrs. Z. R. Taylor, program chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Dale Thompson.

The executive committee met prior to the general meeting with Mrs. Harry Loria, council president, in charge.

The committee chairmen for the year were announced as follows: program, Mrs. Taylor; Christian world relations, Mrs. Thompson; Christian world missions, Mrs. William Snowball; Christian social relations, Mrs. Glenn Whitehill; leadership education, Mrs. J. C. Pottorf; public relations, Mrs. Ray Dean; world service, Mrs. Ralph Walton.

Nominating committee members are Mrs. Laten Carter, chairman, Mrs. Wade Schafer and Mrs. Donald Mayhew.

World Day of Prayer, March 8, will be the next general meeting of the council. The First Methodist Church will be host church.

Mrs. Ervin C. Cope of Cleveland, vice president of the northeast Ohio area of the United Council of Church Women, will be the guest speaker.

Faith Court Visited By Area Officials

Faith Court Order of the Amaranth was honored with official visits at a meeting Friday night in the Masonic Temple. Royal matron, Mrs. Chester Kridler and royal patron, Roy Fennema, presided.

The official visitors were Katharina Young of Youngstown, deputy grand royal matron; Oliver McClelland of Hubbard, assistant grand lecturer; Margaret Slagle of Canfield, deputy grand royal matron of District 20: and Mrs. Fred Hall and John Wilkinson of Salem, grand representative to Washington and grand representative to Kansas, respectively.

Courts represented were Alliance, Canfield, Hubbard, Niles, East Palestine.

Following initiation, lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore and Mrs. Larry Root. The hall was decorated with fall colors, and the refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of fall flowers and candles in brass candle sticks.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 7 when Faith Court will be visited officially by the grand royal matron and grand royal patron.

On Nov. 17, the Square Girls Club will hold a sauerkraut and pork dinner.

Young Adult Group Being Formed Here

A single young adult group is being organized in Salem and will meet at the Westminster House of the First Presbyterian Church Saturday at 8 p.m.

FINED AT LISBON

LISBON—One motorist forfeited $15 bond when he failed to appear for hearing in Mayor Wilbur Warren's court Wednesday on a charge of passing without the assured clear distance ahead.

Alfred W. Bittner, 67, of RD 1, Lisbon, forfeited the bond.

Harold Amos of East Liverpool was arrested for intoxication and was given a 10-day jail sentence.

New Gas Line To Aid Columbiana, Leetonia Region

Work is under way on a $74,000 pipeline construction project that will improve natural gas service to Leetonia and Columbiana, it was announced today.

Bruce W. Cox, Natural Gas Company of West Virginia local manager, said more than three miles of pipe — 8⅝ and 6⅝ inches in diameter — will be laid. The new line will extend from an existing line south of Leetonia, northeast toward Columbiana. It will replace four sections of smaller lines, Cox said.

B. F. Gundelfinger, Inc. of Columbus, is installing the new line. Work is expected to be completed before Nov. 15.

Natural Gas Company of West Virginia, a subsidiary of the Columbia Gas System, is able to deliver increased volumes of natural gas to the area because of Columbia's vast supply of gas from Louisville and the Southwest, Cox said.

COURT CASE HEARD

LISBON — Testimony is being heard today in Common Pleas court in a $750 damage suit stemming from a truck and car accident.

senatorial victory statement read.

It was issued before election returns showed that Democrats would control the House in Washington but might be in position to lose Senate rule to Republicans, depending on how Lausche voted.

Democrats took only one elective state office in Tuesday's GOP sweep that saw Eisenhower set two state records in capturing Ohio's 25 electoral votes.

Complete unofficial returns gave Eisenhower 2,266,859 popular votes to 1,439,151 for Adlai E. Stevenson, his Democratic opponent. Ike's total surpassed his 1952 record vote of 2,100,391 in Ohio. No other presidential candidate ever topped the two million mark in Ohio.

And Eisenhower's 827,708 margin over Stevenson surpassed the 773,336 record plurality former GOP President Herbert Hoover received in Ohio over the late Alfred E. Smith of New York. Eisenhower's margin over Stevenson in Ohio four years ago barely exceeded a half-million.

Complete unofficial returns from Ohio's 12,097 polling places gave Lausche 1,857,693 to 1,657,686 for Bender, a fellow Clevelander.

In the gubernatorial race, the complete unofficial count gave O'Neill 1,964,998 to 1,553,017 for Democrat Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, former federal price controller.

The state Legislature remained under GOP control.

3,000 Jeer Red U. N. Delegates

NEW YORK (AP) — A menacing crowd of 3,000 surged toward the headquarters of the Russian United Nations delegation on Park Avenue Wednesday night as the Red elite within downed champagne and vodka toasts to the 39th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

A force of about 150 police — some of them mounted — barred the shouting pickets from the entrance.

Many in the crowd were of Hungarian descent. Numerous students of several colleges joined the demonstration.

As guests passed in and out of the Red delegation's headquarters pickets held placards high. Some of them read:

"Don't drink champagne mixed with Hungarian blood."

"Get out of America, you murderers."

Eisenhower

confidence they can draft their own legislative program and pit it successfully against Eisenhower's.

These Democrats seemed to have discarded any belief that open opposition to the President might amount to political suicide in future voting.

Eisenhower cannot run again even if he wanted to. That political fact seems likely to have an effect in GOP ranks too. Some Republicans owe their elections to a firm clutch on Eisenhower's coattails. ut many others, including most of the holdovers in the Senate, did not.

The GOP lawmakers like the Democrats, knew that for practical purposes Eisenhower's influence at the polls ended last Tuesday. They already were speculating on the identity of the man who will head their ticket in 1960.

The choice being so wide, the GOP House and Senate members appeared likely to do at the moment of legislative decision what each thought was best for his own individual political future. They might not follow Eisenhower's lead.

Cerebral Palsy TV 'Telethon' Planned

An eight-year-old Salem student at the cerebral palsy center in Youngstown will appear on television Sunday during a "telethon" performance to garner funds for the center's work with cerebral palsy victims.

Jens Swenningson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Swenningson of 1257 Maple St., will appear on WKBN and WFMJ television during the program.

Jens is a student at the W. Woodland Ave. Center of the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Youngstown and Mahoning County. The center is open Monday through Friday during the mornings. At the center, children receive therapy treatment for cerebral palsy as well as learning to solve other problems.

Dummy Used To Show Murder Wounds

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dr. Frank P. Cleveland, coroner's pathologist, used a life-sized dummy Wednesday to show the knife wounds caused by the killer of Mrs. Audrey Evers Pugh.

Cleveland used the mannikin in the first full day of prosecution testimony in the trial of Robert V. Lyons, 43-year-old former city worker charged with first degree murder in her death.

Dr. Cleveland told the jury that there were more than 20 wounds in Mrs. Pugh's body, and that there were "a large number of wounds which could have been in and of themselves fatal."

He said that the woman died of severe internal and external hemorrhages of the neck and chest.

Dr. Cleveland was still under cross-examination by defense counsel William F. Hopkins when court adjourned for the day.

Earlier, the jury heard Lt. Charles Martin, head of the city police homicide squad, testify that no finger prints of Lyons were found in the Pugh home.

Lyons was arrested 45 days after Mrs. Pugh was killed last April 11. Investigators said he admitted in a statement that he killed her after she reprimanded him for seeking to use the wrong door of the Pugh home to check a water meter. He later repudiated the statement.

ago by Israeli armored columns and paratroopers.

Commandos Cross Border

The Israeli army said commando squads stabbed across the border at many places from Shaar Hagai, midway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, to the narrow waist of Israel north of Tel Aviv, blowing up a water pipeline and three houses, and attacking several cars with gunfire and grenades. No one was injured.

Since the Israeli blow at Egypt, Jordan is reported to have been reinforced by Syrian, Iraq and Saudi Arabian troops—an action which Premier David Ben-Gurion at one time said would cause Israel to reserve "freedom of action."

Powerful units of the U. S. Navy, including the big carriers Forrestal and Franklin D. Roosevelt, put out into the Atlantic on readiness tests, and American commanders everywhere were alerted to take precautionary defense measures. U.S. armed services spokesmen said they did not want the United States to be caught flat-footed in another Pearl Harbor.

Faces Hard Snags

The United Nations was still faced with hard snags in its efforts to set up an international police force in the canal area.

Britain and France flatly refused to pull out of the canal zone until the U.N. police force took over the area. Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion said his government would not agree to any foreign force being stationed in Israel or on any territory it had occupied. Egypt demanded immediate withdrawal of the British, French and Israeli troops, a demand endorsed by the U.N. General Assembly in a resolution Wednesday night.

Despite the conflicting demands of the combatants, the Assembly authorized the command of the new U.N. force, headed by Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, to "proceed forthwith with the full organization." Twelve nations already had offered troops, and some U.N. delegates predicted the first units would arrive in the Suez in two or three days.

Claims Fight Continues

On the canal front, Egypt said her people were still fighting hard Wednesday night in Port Said, Mediterranean terminal of the waterway.

An Egyptian spokesman in Cairo said severe fighting was still going on in the port city, buildings were ablaze from naval bombardment and water supplies were cut off by French capture of the city's reservoir.

Observers in Port Said estimate 1,500 Egyptians had been killed and several thousand wounded in the fight for the key port. British and French casualties were put at "just over 100 killed and wounded," but the wounded were still being brought on stretchers to the casualty stations.

Gen. Sir Charles Keightley, British-French commander, said after visiting Port Said Wednesday, "There has been no fighting since the cease-fire became operative, but there was a case of looting by Egyptians this morning."

Associated Press correspondent Leonard Leddington reported from the occupied city Wednesday night that the British-French forces had full control—but that there was no peace.

Leddington said most of the wounded were victims of Egyptian snipers or snipers themselves. Associated Press correspondent David Mason, after a tour of Port Said, said an Egyptian mob looted a flour mill in the city and occupation troops fired on them.

Electricity was cut off in much of the city. Many of the 177,700 inhabitants had fled. Many of those remaining stared glumly from balconies at the troops, tanks and other vehicles as they moved through the streets.

U. N. Force

skjold's plan for the force was 64-0, with Egypt, Israel, South Africa and the Soviet bloc abstaining. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vassily V. Kuznetsov charged that the plan "is an open attempt to secure a decision suitable to the United Kingdom and France."

The Assembly approved the call for immediate troop withdrawals 65-1, with 10 abstentions. Only Israel voted against it.

The number of nations volunteering men for the U.N. force rose to 12 — Canada, Ceylon, Colombia, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Finland, India, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, Romania and Sweden.

Hammarskjold announced he would ask those countries to get their troops on the way as soon as Egypt accepted each nationality. There was no word of Egyptian acceptance, but some delegates predicted the first U. N. troops would be in the canal zone in two or three days.

The secretary general's plan calls for a force of "a few units of battalion strength." A battalion usually is 800 to 1,000 men.

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. told the Assembly the United States is ready to help transport the troops and furnish supplies. Troops of the United States, along with those of the other four permanent "big power" members of the Security Council, are barred from the police group itself.

Southerners Again To Head Most Congress Committees Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new Democratic-controlled Congress convening Jan. 3 will have new chairmen of both Senate and House committees dealing with international affairs.

Otherwise President Eisenhower will be working with most of the same committee heads. Some have largely supported his efforts; others have opposed them.

Most committee chairmen in the next session again will come from the South. Southerners are in line for 8 of the 15 Senate chairmanships and 12 of the 19 House posts.

Veteran Walter George (D-Ga), dean of the Senate, is leaving that body after 34 years and thus relinquishing his job as head of the Foreign Relations Committee. It will go to 89-year-old Theodore Francis Green (D-RI), oldest man ever to serve in the Senate.

In the House, Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC) of the Foreign Affairs Committee also is retiring. Rep. Thomas S. Gordon (D-Ill) is in line to succeed him.

The administration received strong support from these Democratic-led committees in the last two years on most foreign affairs questions, and can look for this generally to continue.

Also, such chairmen as Sen. Byrd (D-Va) of the Finance Committee are expected to continue their backing of the President on most issues.

Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala), chairman of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, can be expected to fight hard for a school construction bill along the lines the administration wants, provided no antisegregation provision is attached to it.

On the other hand, administration civil rights legislation is certain to get a frigid reception from Sen. James Eastland (D-Miss), chairman of the Judiciary Committee, just as it did in the 1956 session.

But in the House, Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) of the Judiciary group has expressed a desire to go considerably further than the civil rights program presented this year by Eisenhower.

In addition to the committees handling foreign affairs, these two committees will have new chairmen:

House Commerce — Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) will succeed the late Percy Priest (D-Tenn).

Senate Rules — Sen. Thomas C. Hennings (D-Mo) probably will succeed Green.

Helen Stevenson, Gov. Meyner To Wed

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—The parents of Helen Day Stevenson, daughter of a college president, today announced her engagement to Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

The names of the 28-year-old brunette and the handsome 48-year-old Democratic governor have been linked romantically for months.

Her father, William E. Stevenson, president of Oberlin College, said they plan to wed in January.

During the election campaign, Miss Stevenson worked for the Volunteers for Stevenson-Kefauver campaign. She shares a distant relative with the unsuccessful presidential candidate through her mother's side of her family.

Her father explained that like this:

"My wife's aunt married Spencer Ewing, who was a double first cousin of Adlai Stevenson's father."

A graduate of Colorado College, Miss Stevenson served with the Red Cross in Korea, later returning to this country, where she was employed at the United Nations building and as a public relations representative of an airline.

Man Survives 12 Days At Sea In Small Boat; Friend Dies

SOUTHPORT, N. C. (AP) —"Those sharks were awful. They came in droves. Bumped their heads against the boat, kept whipping about in the water. When my buddy died I laid down in the bottom of the boat. I didn't want the sharks to see me."

Through cracked lips, 20-year-old Douglas Wilson Sessoms of Laurinburg, N. C., thus described his 12 days at sea in a 14-foot homemade boat.

"I don't remember exactly," said the curly-haired young tree surgeon when landed here early today by a Coast Guard boat, "just when (J. Eddie) Boone died but I believe it was on the third day."

Sessoms, the 34-year-old Boone, also of Laurinburg, a foreman in a tree surgery group, had set out from Corn Cake inlet, 30 miles south of Wilmington, N. C., on Oct. 27 on a short fishing excurson. Rough seas washed out their outboard motor and a receding tide pulled them to sea between Ft. Fisher and Bald Head Island, south of Carolina Beach.

"The first day, Boone was awfully nauseated," Sessoms, speckled with skin sores, recalled. The next day he began showing signs of delerium. He was out of his head the third day. I think that's the day he died. I slept with my head on his arm two nights. After the odor got too strong I buried him at sea.

"I got to where I couldn't think about anything but food, and land and (drinking) water. (He said he caught sufficient rainwater in the motor cover to fill his drinking needs).

"But I gave up hope only once. I kept praying to the Lord and my hope came back and I never gave up hope again.

"Two ships passed way off but didn't see me.

"When that third ship hove into sight Wednesday, I was too weak to stand up. I'd been without food nine days. I raised up from the bottom of the boat high enough for my head to show, and I waved my arm. They came and got me."

The SS Hess Petrel picked up the sturdy young man with the blond stubble beard 125 miles east off the South Carolint-Georgia border. At 1:30 a. m., today the Petrel transferred Sessoms to a Coast Guard boat 55 miles east of Southport.

Sessoms was hospitalized here at 5:30 a. m., at Dosher Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Norman Honstein, after an examination, reported: "He is in very fine condition considering what he has been through. He is suffering from external ulcers (skin sores) caused by salt water exposure. He is not suffering much shock. He does have wind burns. If no complications set in he should be in the hospital about a week."

Mahoning Farms In Corn Aid Program

According to L. L. Moff ,chairman of the Couny Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Mahoning County now meets the legal requirements for designation as a commercial corn county, and has been designated as a commercial corn county.

Moff explains that, in determining the commercial corn producing area, counties are designated on the basis of those having an average production of corn (excluding corn used as silage) during the preceding 10 calendar years — after adjustments for abnormal conditions of 450 bushels or more per farm and 4 bushels or more per acre of farmland in the county.

Farmers in the commercial corn area who comply with the program will be eligible for price support and to participate in the program under the Soil Bank Act of 1956, Moff said.

Individual farm acreage allotments or Soil Bank Base Acreages, whichever are applicable, for the 1957 corn crop will be based on recent corn acreage history, and producers are urged to cooperate in supplying the necessary acreage figures for their farms.

Quakers To Close 1956 Season Against Chaney Friday

Score Is Named Top Sophomore

Indian Hurler Honored For 20-Win Season

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Herb Score, Cleveland's fastballing lefthander, had even a better season in 1956 than he had in 1955 when he was named American League Rookie-of-the-year.

For his 1956 performance, Score today was voted the Sophomore-of-the-Year in the annual Associated Press poll. Herb and Frank Lary of Detroit received the bulk of the votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.

Score was named on 103 ballots, Lary on 63 and Johnny Kucks of he New York Yankees on 32. Tom Sturdivant of the Yanks, with four and Hector Lopez of Kansas City, Elston Howard of the Yanks, Rocky Colavito of Cleveland and Billy Klaus of Boston, who had one each, rounded out the 206 votes.

A 16-game winner in 1955 when he set an American League record for first year pitchers by striking out 245 batters, Score won 20 games in his sophomore campaign while losing only 9. He again topped the junior circuit in strikeouts with 263 and finished second to the Yanks' Whitey Ford in the earned run competition with a 2.57 average.

The 23-year-old southpaw is a native of Rosedale, N. Y. He lives in Lake Worth, Fla. Cleveland signed him to a bonus contract (reportedly for $60,000) in 1952. He was assigned to Indianapolis of the American Assn. and won only two games and lost five.

Score was dropped to Reading, Pa. of the Eastern League the following season, winning seven and losing three games. In 1954, he starred for Indianapolis, compiling a 22-5 record while establishing a strikeout mark with 330 for the year.

Red Wings Top NHL; Canadians Second

By The Associated Press

The National Hockey League standings looked a little more natural today with Montreal's defending champions in second place only a point back of the Detroit Red Wings.

But there also was a surprise with the Boston Bruins tied with the Canadians and the New York Rangers deep in fifth place.

The Canadians and Bruins moved up Wednesday night with victories in the only games played in the league. Montreal cooled off Toronto's red-hot Maple Leafs 4-3 largely on the strength of 3 goals by Dickie Moore. And the Bruins thumped the Rangers 4-2 for the New Yorkers' third setback in their last four outings. They tied the fourth game.

61,000 Fans To See Pitt-Notre Dame Tilt

PITTSBURGH — Pitt and Notre Dame meet in one of the top intersectional games of the day Saturday at Pitt Stadium before a sellout crowd of 61,000 fans.

The game has been sold out since Aug. 23, the earlies date for a sellout in Pitt History. Kickoff is slated for 1:30 p.m.

This is the twenty-third meeting between these two rivals with Notre Dame holding a decided edge, 15-6. One game ended in a scoreless tie. Pitt first met Notre Dame in 1909 but did not win its first game from the Irish until 1932. These two teams have played each other every year since 1943 except in 1949 and last season. This will be the first meeting between Pitt Coach John Michelosen, Notre Dame Coach Terry Brennan, now in his third year.

Pitt has not whipped the Irish at the Pitt Stadium since 1936 when John Michelosen was the starting quarterback. The Panthers last won over Notre Dame in 1952, 22-19. The Pitts have also won four straight at the Statdium, longest home winning streak since the 1948-49 seasons.

Coach Bob Timmons, who has scouted the Irish, feels Notre Dame's biggest trouble is lack of experience. "Remember, the Irish team is mostly sophomores and they are likely to explode in any game. Of the games I have seen, Notre Dame played its worst against Navy."

When asked about quarterback Paul Hornung, Timmons quickly replied, "There is no doubt Hornung is a great player. He can do everything well, pass, kick, run and tackle."

Pitt should be in top physical shape for this game although half Nick Passodelis might see limited action because of a sore leg.

Darrell Lewis, who did not make the trip to Minneapolis for the Minnesota game, is expected to be in top shape while half back Dick Bowen will probably get in the line-up for the first time since the 14-0 defeat to California.

The junior from Duquesne was one of Pitt's top runners last year and his loss has been felt.

Coach Michelosen is pleased over his backfield combination, especially with Ralph Jelic who has gained 175 yards in 31 attempts for a 5.6 average. Ralph gained 40 yards against Minnesota and played an exceptional game on defense.

The leading scorer on the Pitt team is Joe Walton with 30 points as a result of five touchdown passes. The Beaver Falls end is tied with five other players with TD passes.

Tech's Stephenson Lineman Of Week

By The Associated Press

Don Stephenson, Georgia Tech's junior center, who is credited with some fine defensive play that helped keep the Yellow Jackets in the ranks of the undefeated and untied last Saturday, was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week today.

Tech, which finally crashed through a rugged Duke defense in the fourth quarter for the touchdown that brought a 7-0 victory, was in dire straits in the first half.

Stephenson, a 21-year-old, 190-pound junior from Bessemer, Ala., made what probably was a touchdown saving tackle after Sonny Jurgenson, Duke quarterback, passed to end Bill Thompson.

Thompson eluded several tacklers, but Stephenson finally stopped him on the Tech 16. However, Duke pounded to a first down on the five. Stephenson, a fine, speedy linebacker, was in on three of the four tackles that stopped Duke cold at that point. He was credited with 12 tackles during the game.

A runnerup for lineman honors is Bill Glass, a 218-pound Baylor guard, who played a tremendous game although his team was edged 7-6 by Texas Christian.

Ron Kramer, Michigan end, drew special praise for his play as the Wolverines stopped Iowa 17-14. Kramer's field goal from the 12 provided Michigan's margin of victory, and he caught a 19 yard pass late in the game to set up the winning touchdown.

Tackle Bob Reifsnyder of Navy also received votes for this week's honor off his powerful play against Notre Dame. The sophomore made 12 tackles and was in many key plays.

Coach Says Russian Team Is 'Collassal'

MELOURNE, Australia (AP) — Famous coach Franz Stampfl, writing in today's Melbourne Argus, warns Australia the Russian athletes are "collossal."

They'll give American and other countries a tremendous shock in the games, he said. They're set for a lot of medals unless they crack up badly under competition.

The outstanding thing about them is the way they go about their work, he wrote. There is no wasting time. There is just grim determination.

Duke Harris Stopped By Logart In 7th

CHICAGO (AP)—Clarence (Duke) Harris' attempted climb in the welterweight ranks was blocked Wednesday night by Cuban Isaac Logart, who stopped the 24-year-old Detroit hopeful in the seventh round.

Logart, fourth rated 147-pound contender, danced and parried with his inexperienced foe through five rather dull rounds of the scheduled 10. Then he set him up for the TKO in the sixth.

A smashing left caught Harris flush on the chin midway in the sixth. Harris barely lasted out the round.

In the seventh, Logart leaped into action, scoring with a left and straight right that drove Harris across the ring and made him lower his gloves, which he had been holding near his face throughout the bout to ward off Logart's counterpunches.

Logart smashed a left hook and another right to Harris' face and the Detroiter reeled into the corner.

Logart went in for the kill but Referee Walter Brightmore halted the fight.

Logart outweighed Harris 148 pounds to 146.

11 Salem Seniors To Play Last Game

By MARK MILLER

When the Salem High School football team plays Youngstown Chaney Friday night at Reilly Stadium, it will be the last game of the season for both schools.

Losing five of eight contests, and their last two in a row, the Quakers hope to rebound enough to gain victory number four against the Chaney Cowboys.

Playing their last game tomorrow night are 11 seniors, Joe Bryan, Dale Swartz, Bill Schuster, Tom Alesi, Larry Hepler, Fred Jensen, Fred Stewart, Roy Henderson, Tom Foreman, Roy Yeager and Ted Jackson. Yeager and Jackson definitely will be out of the game due to injuries.

YEAGER RECEIVED a broken leg playing against East Liverpool in the first half of last weeks game, and not knowing that it was broken, continued to play the second half. Jackson received a pulled muscle in the Canton Timken game, and has tried to continue to play out the season, even though the leg refused to respond to treatment.

Bill Schuster, Quaker left halfback who also is playing his last game, has been the leading scorer all year. Bill has made nine TD's and two extra points for a total of 56 points, three more than the complete overall total Chaney has scored all season.

THE YOUNGSTOWN Chaney Cowboys have lost seven out of eight games, only being able to defeat Youngstown North 13-12. Their losses were to: Woodrow Wilson 40-7, Campbell Memorial 43-6, Youngstown South 59-0, East 37-13, Ursuline 53-7, Rayen 34-7, and Farrell, Pa., 46-0.

Cowboy left halfback Bob Chockey, has scored seven touchdowns for 42 points, which is almost 80 per cent of his team total points

The Chaney starting 11 will list just three seniors, seven juniors, and one sophomore. They will be the ninth straight team to outweigh the Quakers both on the line and in the backfield.

On the forward wall the Cowboys average 173 pounds per man, and in the backfield 167. In comparison the Red and Black averages 164 on the line, and 149 in the backfield.

Although Chaney's record isn't too impressive, they are quite capable of moving the ball, and should the Quakers make some critical mistakes, they could well be on the short end of the score.

Japan All-Stars Trip Brooklyn Dodgers 3-2

SHIZUOKA, Japan (AP) — The Japan All-Stars pushed across a run in the last of the ninth inning today and again beat the Brooklyn Dodgers 3-2 before 20,000.

It was the Dodgers' fourth loss agains 10 wins and one tie on their Japan tour.

Illinois, Purdue, Boast Two Best Big 10 Ground Gainers

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois and Purdue, currently running in the second division of the Big Ten football title race, have the conferences two best yard gainers.

Illinois' Abe Woodson, tabbed by Michigan Coach Bennie Oosterbaan as "probably the most dangerous back in the country;" tops the ball carriers with 45 yards in 75 trips for a 5.9 average. Held to a season's low of 66 yards last week by Purdue, Woodson will try to boost his rushing standard against Michigan Saturday.

Len Dawson, at Purdue, handicapped by a lame shoulder suffered in the Illinois game, may see little or no action as a passer against Michigan State Saturday. That will be a big blow to the Boilermakers' hopes of an upset because Dawson is No. 1 on total offense, according to official Big Ten statistics released today.

Dawson has gained 582 yards, 576 of them through the air with 47 completions in 79 attempts for 5 touchdowns. Pat Wilson of MSU, although having only 12 attempts, ranks behind Dawson among passers, mainly because his 7 hits have one for 212 yards.

Second to Woodson in rushing is Purdue fullback Mel Dillard with 367 yards in 82 carries for a 4.5 average.

Michigan State, bouncing back after being upset by Illinois to smash Wisconsin 33-0, has taken over No. 1 ranking on both offense and defense. The Spartans have averaged 358 yards a game to 317 for second-place Illinois.

U.S. Olympic Stars Reach Melbourne

By MURRAY ROSE

MELBOURNE (AP)—The first big planeload of the mighty Yank team arrived today as international Olympic officials sought to lead some of the withdrawn nations back into the Melbourne fold.

The group of 64 Americans headed by Kenneth Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee, landed in bright sunshine at Essendon Airport.

Some sparkle had gone out of the preparations for the massive international sports spectacle opening Nov. 2 by the withdrawals of Holland, Spain, Red China and Iraq. Efforts were started today by Wilfred Kent-Hughes, chairman of the organizing committee, and Otto Mayer, chancellor of the International Olympic Committee, to lure some countries, especially Holland, back into the games.

Kent-Hughes, who appealed to the nations of the world to overcome international distrust and jealousies in the true spirit of the Olympics, set the wheels in motion by cabling the Dutch national Olympic committee to reconsider its decision.

Wilson, who had a big smile when he entered the airport at the head of the gay American group—many of them clad in Bermuda shorts — was sober-faced when advised of the latest developments in the Olympic crisis since his party left Honolulu.

"I am naturally grieved by reports of the withdrawals of some nations," he said. "I sincerely hope Holland and the other countries will reconsider."

The American main vanguard today consisted of 16 wrestlers and 11 canoeists plus administrative officials and newspapermen.

Friday two more planeloads will land in the afternoon and early evening carrying some of the biggest names in track and field and rowing. Among them sculler Jack B. Kelly, Jr., American champion and brother of Grace, the outstanding Yale eight which is in for a tough fight to maintain American supremacy in this rowing classic, track and fielders Parry O'Brien, world record holding shotputter, Lou Jones, fastest 400 meter runner of all time, broadjumper John Bennett, sprinters Ira Murchison and Thane Baker, hurdler Jack Davis and middledistance aces Tom Courtney and Lon Spurrier.

DUMMY DRILL — Ollie Matson takes the ball as the Chicago Cardinals go through a dummy drill session at Comiskey Park. The former Olympic athlete is one of the outstanding all-around backs, unequalled as a punt return man. To beat Cards, this speed boy has to be contained.

Midwest Has Contenders For All-America Quarterback, End

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) —The midwest's strongest All-America bids, as the football season rolls into the home stretch, are concentrated at the quarterback and end positions.

This area's selection board for the AP honor team originally figured the sectional battle for quarterback honors was between Notre Dame's Paul Hornung and Purdue's Len Dawson.

But now such added starters in the All-America scramble have popped up as Bobby Cox of Minnesota, Ken Pleen of Iowa and Pat Wilson of Michigan State's No. 4 team in the national AP poll.

Cox and Pleen display their talents before a national TV audience Saturday in the Rose Bowl showdown between the Hawkeyes and Gophers at Minneapolis.

At the end posts, Michigan's Ron Kramer and Purdue's Lamar Lundy are powerful candidates with Kramer adjudged by the board to be perhaps the midwest's best football player at this writing.

But other strong wingmen are 187-pound Frank Gilliam, a terror in a fine Iowa line; Leo Brown, Ohio State's amazingly good 168-pounder; Wisconsin's Dave Howard; and Tony Kolodziej, a fresh and fierce candidate from Michigan State.

At other positions, the board comes up with these well-studied nominees:

Tackle — Alex Karras, 235 pounder from Iowa; and Bob Hobert, a Minnesota mauler who excels especially as a blocker.

Guard — Jim Parker, Ohio State's behemoth one-man gang; and Michigan State's consistent Dan Currier.

Center — Northwestern's Ted Ringer, a great performer on a tough, but losing team; Iowa's Don Suchy, a superb linebacker; Ed Sullivan of Notre Dame; and Johnny Matsko of Michigan State.

Halfback — Abe Woodson, the Illinois speedster who is the "coaches' back of the Big Ten"; Ohio State's Don Clark; and Northwestern's Bob Mc Keiver.

Fullback — Mel Dillard, Purdue's battering ram, and Michigan's rapidly improving sophomore, Johnny Herrnstein.

The midwest board includes: Gordon Graham, La Fayette, Ind., Journal Courier; Dick Cullum, Minneapolis Tribune; George Strickler, Chicago Tribune; John Si Burick, Dayton, Ohio News; Joe Falls, Detroit Times; Hank Mc Cormick, Wisconsin State Journal, Madison, Wis.; and Gus Schrader, Cedar Rapids, Ia., Gazette.

NAMED 'BACK OF WEEK' — Quarterback Don Shinnick, above, one of UCLA's "five game seniors," was chosen Associated Press "back of the week" for his performance Nov. 3 against Stanford.

Hornung To Play Against Pittsburgh

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Paul Hornung, Notre Dame's star quarterback, might not be at his favorite position Saturday when the Irish meet Pitt but "he'll play somewhere."

Coach Terry Brennan Wednesday night spiked reports that Hornung would make only a token appearance against the Panthers because of an injured thumb.

"We need him too much to let him sit on the bench," said Brennan. "If he can't play at quarterback then I'll use him at fullback or at haback." If or at halfback."

If the Irish (1-5) lose one more game it will be the worst season in their football history. The only time they lost five games before was in 1933.

Hornung first dislocated his left thumb when Michigan State whipped the Irish 47-14. With Oklahoma the opponent the following week, Brennan then said Hornung would be used at another backfield post if he couldn't handle the snap from center in the Irish split T offense.

Hornung, however, quarterbacked most of he Oklahoma game. The Irish lost 40-0.

Thus far this week, Hornung has had difficulty with the thumb, which was reinjured in a 33-7 loss to Navy Saturday. Sophomore Bob Williams has been working out at quarterback.

VFW To Hold Ping Pong Tourney Here

A local ping pong tournament will be held Saturdays, November 10 and 17 at the VFW Hall on N. Broadway.

The tournament will start at 1:30 and finish up at 5 p.m. Winners will be selected in the junior class, students in 7th, 8th and 9th grades and in the senior class open to 10th, 11th and 12th grades .

Anyone interested in entering must register at the second floor meeting room of the VFW, from 1 to 3 p.m. this Saturday. Individuals are permitted to provide their own paddles, or if they don't have any the VFW will furnish them. Also balls are to be furnished by the VFW.

Local winners in each class will get trophies and will be eligible for the district finals, to be held at the VFW on November 24. Youths from other area VFW posts will compete here, in conjunction with the 6th district conference of VFW which will be held Nov. 24 and 25.

Football Briefs

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs:

Iowa — Six players were listed by the team physician as doubtful for the showdown with Minnesota. They were halfbacks Don Dobrino, Al Kloewer and Bill Happel, center Don Suchy and guards Hugh Drake and Dick Theer.

Minnesota — Forward pass defense by the secondary featured a final heavy workout. Left halfback Ken Bobardier returned to action and ran with the second team.

Michigan — Coach Bennie Oosterbaan said right half Terry Barr suffering from a leg injury and ankle sprain, probably won't see action against Illinois. Ed Shannon is running in Barr's spot, backed up by Mike Shatusky.

Illinois — The Illini polished a special defense coach Ray Eliot hopes to check Michigan's mutiple offense. Reserve tackle Dick Nordmeyer was sidelined by tonsilitis. Jack Delveaux, Chicago sophomore, was shifted to the No. 1 fullback spot.

Indiana — Center Joe Amstutz and left tackles Mike Rabold and Ray Slampyak may be unable to make the trip to Ohio State. Each is on the casualty list.

Ohio State — Coach Woody Hayes is working the Bucks overtime on offense in an effort to bring them back up after a slow down against Penn State and Northwestern.

Purdue — With passer Len Dawson an unlikely starter against Michigan State because of a shoulder bruise, senior Ted Krzeczowski and sophomore Bob Spooran the varsity in a long scrimmage.

Michigan State — Word is out that under only two circumstances might the Spartans run the huddle type of football against Purdue: If MSU is winning good, if it is losing bad.

Wisconsin — Fullback Pat Levenhagen, nursing a sprained ankle returned to drills. Four quarterbacks shared signal calling chores as the Badgers brushed up on their aerial game for Northwestern.

Northwestern — The Wildcats had their second straight scrimmage session against freshmen and have high hopes of staking out their first Big Ten victory since 1954.

Notre Dame — Sophomore Bob Williams continued as No. 1 quarterback with Paul Hornung still troubled on snap-backs with a reinjured left thumb. He may be used at fullback or halfback against Pitt.

Marquette — Sophomores Bob Wallish or Tony Mixan will take over the duties of end and captain, Art Katula, hobbled with a bad leg.

Leads Racing Drivers

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP) — Billy Haughton, who led the nation's harness race drivers with 168 victories last year, is virtually certain to set a new mark this season. He equalled his 1955 record Wednesday night by winning the sixth race at Yonkers Raceway with Master Fingo.

It's Cox Versus Ploen In Gopher, Iowa Tilt

By JIM KLOBUCHAR

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A pair of football do-it-yourself experts vaguely disguised as T-formation quarterbacks but carrying the tools of the old-fashioned single wing tailback, bump together Saturday in the Rose Bowl payoff between Minnesota and Iowa.

The central figures in the nationally televised battle are Minnesota's Bobby Cox and Iowa's Kenny Ploen.

Where the thought of running with the ball might once have offended the T quarterbacks, Cox and Ploen make a habit of it, and a productive one.

True, Cox operates from Minnesota's split-T, which requires the quarterback to leg it with the rest of the backs. With Cox, though, it's more than a duty. He's making a career out of it.

For the last three games the Gopher junior has averaged around 20 carries a game, for about 4.5 yards a clip. He has been Minnesota's major running threat since he first broke into the starting lineup three weeks ago.

His passing reputation prevents enemy defenses from ganging up against his running plays and his knack for digging out a couple of extra yards helps him in the tough situations.

Ploen handles himself in much the same fashion. A year ago he was lost behind another fine Hawkeye quarterback, Jerry Reichow. This season has done as much or more than Reichow ever did.

In 45 carries, he has averaged 5.8 yards a crack. He has completed 13 passes for 173 yards and rolled up more than 400 yards total offense.

Sebring-Goshen Game Time Is Changed

Sebring's High School football team will play the Goshen football team at Sebring Saturday night at 7:45 p.m. instead of 8 p.m. as previously scheduled.

This will be a Goshen home game, and "dad's night" will be observed. All fathers of Goshen team players and managers are to meet at the high school in Sebring at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Briton Says U. N. Must Act On Mid-East

CINCINNATI (AP)—Herbert Morrison, deputy prime minister of England under Clement Attlee, said Wednesday night he believes the United Nations "must do something effective" about the Middle East crisis.

He said, "If it dodges the question or fails to see justice done, the UN will damage itself."

Morrison, starting a speaking tour of the United States, addressed the annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Assn.

He said, "I'm a United Nations man. I wish it well. I am sorry that some countries are not playing the game by it. I want it to be strong."

Morrison said he did not want to comment on Britain's action with France in the Near East because "I am thousands of miles away."

He said that Israel had a case in the dispute with Egypt, and that "other nations were threatening destruction of Israel and these countries were guilty of aggression also."

Morrison said that he thinks Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal was "a dictatorial act in the nature of an act of aggression."

He said, "I submit that this is not the right way to conduct international affairs. If it is tolerated, nations will say, 'What's the good of making treaties?' "

Morrison said, "I don't want to see Israel destroyed," adding that the country had made great social, economic and agricultural advances."

He said that, if a peaceful Suez settlement can be made, "it will be a great thing for the U.N.

He added, "We must be a little patient with the United Nations. Governments are more awkward to handle than human beings."

New Air Force Film Available In Area

A new Air Force film is now available to schools, clubs and other organizations in this area.

The movie was made after a national survey was conducted of parents with children of draft age, to determine the parents' prime objections to military training. This survey resulted in five general problem areas which in turn were incorporated into the script of the film.

The new 28½ minute motion picture, "First 100 Days," is in color and gives a factual report of the training given young men in the Air Force. Organizations desiring to obtain this film for showings, may do so by contacting M. Sgt. Howard F. Sallade, Air Force Recruiter in the Midland Buckeye Building in Alliance or by calling Alliance 18373.

Marion Power Shovel Sold To Universal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Universal Corp. Wednesday purchased assets of the Marion Power Shovel Co. and the Osgood Co., both of Marion, Ohio, for $16,900,993.

Universal said terms of purchase were approved by its shareholders at a special meeting. It said the terms previously were approved by stockholders of Marion and Osgood, firms which produce excavating equipment and mobile cranes.

Universal President James Mullaney said the company plans to continue Marion and Osgood operations without change and to work for a "progressive expansion of activity."

The board of directors of Universal established Marion and Osgood companies as divisions of Universal. Milton T. Smith was elected president and general manager of both divisions.

The announcement said all operating officers of both firms were named to the same positions they held before Universal's purchase.

Universal was created from assets in sale of the Capital Transit Co. of Washington of which Louis E. Wolfson, board chairman, was principal owner. Wolfson is a Florida financier.

He and his associates control both Universal and Meritt, Chapman and Scott, a firm which owns both Marion Power Shovel and Osgood.

SEES POPULATION JUMP

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Governor-elect C. William O'Neill predicts Ohio's population will jump from nine to 11 million people in the next four years.

In his first post - campaign speech here Wednesday night, the campaign-weary but jovial O'Neill said he believed Ohio will replace Illinois as the fourth largest state within the next four years.

He spoke at a dinner session of the Buckeye Eastern National Polled Hereford Show and Sale. A summer yearling, "Cek Royal Domino," owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knowlton of Bellefontaine, was judged grand champion bull at the show.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There will be another party right after the national voting is analyzed — a labor party, a celebration - type party, I mean.

Victor Reisel

The union chiefs will take time out to toast the of roasting Republicans, because the big industrial cities and most of the big states will turn out to have rolled out a terrific labor vote.

That's a flat prediction. If it's wrong, I'll stick strictly to strikes from now on. But 50 million leaflets can't go wrong.

Ten thousand radio and TV broadcasts can't go wrong, neither can as many mass meetings and rallies. Tens of thousands of precinct workers can't miss.

Gimmicks ranging from closed-circuit television, political rallies to university - directed projects on how to get the housewife out of her kitchen and into the polling booth can't fail.

HOW MUCH all this costs in time, energy, manpower and money I've tried to tally in 20 states in the past ten weeks. No one ever will be able really to calculate the expenditures by labor in behalf of Adlai Stevenson and a friendly Congress.

There is no way fully to estimate all this because the labor strategists themselves haven't been able to keep tabs on the tab. They moved too fast and too heavily to keep the count.

They also feel very strongly that any grand totals would give the impression that they've poured lush funds into just one party in an effort to capture it and the nation.

They say passionately that this conclusion is absolutely wrong and that a big fight, such as the presidential race, takes big money on both sides. They say it sincerely and insist they are fighting only for their political friends.

But no coverage of this campaign would be complete without attempting some estimate of labor's contributions to it — for labor, it will be seen, provided the bulk of the Democratic campaign and the Stevenson vote.

TECHNICALLY, it may not be a "labor vote" but it will be seen as the vote labor got out and influenced. How? Through 50 million leaflets from national headquarters, for example.

A spokesman for the AFL-CIG Committee on Political Education said on the Friday before election that COPE had distributed "some 25 million to 30 million pieces of literature."

The total, he added, did not include what the labor politicos had poured into the field from state and regional headquarters. One union alone, Dave Dubinsky's International Ladies' Garment Workers, distributed 1½ million leaflets. In Pennsylvania, the United Labor Committee spread some 4 million circulars by election day. City after city across the land were strewn with millions more.

Other media were just as heavily laden with labor's viewpoint. Radio and TV, for example, have changed politicking even for the laborites. The airwaves get right into the homes of voters and ease up the need for old-fashioned doorbell ringing.

Though there can be no accurate count of labor's broadcasts, you can reach the 10,000 total easily.

-:-

JUST MULTIPLY the number of stations which carried and rebroadcast labor messages and speeches — all the way from spot announcements to a full hour program featuring George Meany and the great Harry Belafonte singing "The House I Live In," meaning labor's house.

That hour program disclosed labor's imagination and explains its impact on the voter. It was created by labor's airwaves specialist, Morris Novik.

This was the Nov. 1 closed-circuit TV rally, beamed from a central spot to 35 mass meetings. George Meany spoke. He excoriated the republicans.

He said that labor could not get its kind of philosophical and social laws passed in the last four years. He reminded his followers, viewing him from 35 hotel ballrooms across the land, to go and get out the vote.

LABOR'S POLITICAL directors spoke too. As they looked into the cameras, they asked some of their lieutenants in Boston, Philadelphia, Portland and Seattle how things were going there.

The lieutenants picked up phones in the distant cities and called the number of one of three phones on three desks in New York, decorated by three pretty gals. The union girls answered the phones and, over a table mike, relayed the answers to the audience.

That night alone cost $40,000. For the labor people it was well worth it. They must have gotten out many more votes. And that's why there will be the celebration-type party when the count has been studied.

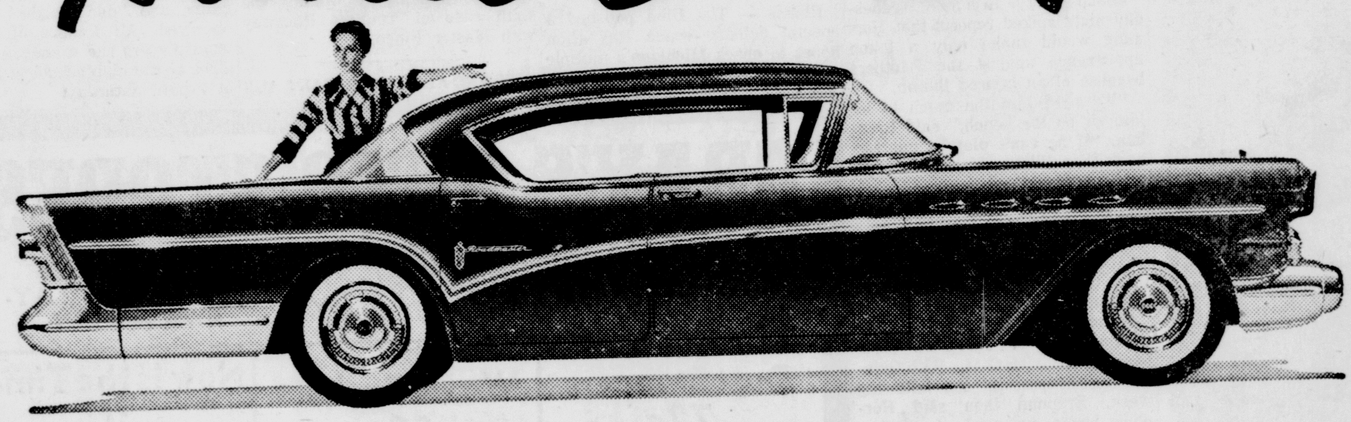
Newest Buick Yet



You know all that talk you've been hearing about the 1957 new car models being really new?

Well, in the case of the 1957 Buicks it's true—gospel true.

We mean these 1957 Buicks are new in the precise and literal sense. We mean new from the ground up, and from gleaming grille to sassy taillights.

We mean new lowness, new styling, new bodies, new windshields, new controls, new safety-padded instrument panels, new safety steering wheels, new seating, new fabrics, new colors.

We mean new front end, new rear end, new frame, new braking, new steering, new handling, new riding, new roadability—a whole new chassis of greater solidity and safety.

We mean V8 engines new from the crankshaft up—engines that deliver an all-time high in horsepower and compression from their 364-cubic-inch displacement.

And we mean, most of all, an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow—so instant in the starting range—so utterly smooth and so totally full-range in "Drive"—that your need for "Low" is practically eliminated.*

So come take in these low-silhouette, these boldly beautiful, these instantly obedient Buicks for 1957.

Then you'll see why you can't blame us for being so fired up about it all—and how catching this excitement can be.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Top Angelfood with Coconut

The idea comes from Menasha, Wis. But women anywhere planning Thanksgiving dinner may welcome it — an angel food cake with lots of coconut added, but no work added.

Here's the sweet story.

Mrs. Laura Clinton of Menasha prided herself on a coconut white cake. It was a butter cake using eight egg whites, coconut milk and freshly grated coconut. However, one day her gracer ran out of fresh coconuts and sent canned coconut instead. At the same time a neighbor suggested she try an angel food mix instead of her eight-egg butter cake. She experimented. Success! Now she plans to serve her new laborless cake for Thanksgiving dessert.

Coconut Angel Food Cake

One package angel food mix, 2 cans (3½ ounces each) tender-thin flaked coconut, Coconut Seven-Minute Frosting.

Prepare angel food mix as directed on package. Pour about one-fourth of the batter into an ungreased 10-inch tube pan. Sprinkle about one-third of one can of coconut over batter. Repeat layering with batter on top. Bake and cool cake as directed on package.

Coconut Seven-Minute Frosting

Make your favorite seven-minute frosting and spread on cake. While frosting is still soft, sprinkle the second can of tender-thin flaked coconut over top and sides of cake.

JAYCEES TO HEAR PASTOR

Rev. William Spearman, assistant pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will speak on desegregation at a meeting of the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 p.m. this evening at the Lape Hotel.

Fleur de Lily Delicacy Is French Inspiration

An inspiration from France can be created in your own kitchen and grace our table as easily as at the Ritz in Paris.

This lily - shaped delicacy will equal in design and edibility that of any famous chef's from here to its French origin.

To prepare the lily dessert, use 3 egg whites, ½ cup sugar, 1-3 cup sifted flour, 1-3 cup finely ground almonds, 1-3 cup butter melted and cooled, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Beat eggs until frothy, gradually beat in sugar. Beat until stiff. Fold in flour, almonds, butter, vanilla. Use 2 tablespoons batter for each lily. Drop 2" apart on greased heavy baking sheet. Bake at 400 for 8 to 10 minutes until lightly browned.

Loosen immediately with spatula and form quickly into little cones. Seal by lapping edges. Cool. Fill with sweetened whipped cream into which strawberries, cherries or blueberries have been folded. Sprinkle with pistachio nuts. Makes 10 to 12 lilies.

Potato Frankfurter Salad Is Excellent

Friends sent us a big bowl of potato frankfurter salad yesterday, made with a new recipe. It was the best we've enjoyed in a long time. We served it with beef and veal meat loaf, brown gravy, and sliced tomatoes with green pepper rings. As usual, we had guests. They said it was a wonderful meal, stressing the salad.

The secret of the salad is 3 tablespoons of onion soup mix.

Potato-Frankfurter Supper Salad

Three pounds new potatoes, ¾ cup chopped celery, ½ cup salad oil, 5 tablespoons vinegar, 3 tablespoons water, 2 teaspoons salt, pepper, 3 tablespoons onion soup mix, 6 frankfurters, boiled and sliced, ¼ cup parsley, ¾ cup salad dressing or mayonnaise.

Wash potatoes and boil until tender. Drain and cool. Remove skins, slice into thin slices and add celery. In a saucepan, combine salad oil, vinegar, water, salt, pepper and onion soup mix. Bring to a boil, and pour over sliced potatoes and celery. Toss lightly. Let stand at room temperature until potatoes have absorbed oil, about 1 hour. Mix in frankfurter slices, parsley and dressing.

Topsy-Turvy Red Cherry Pie

One No. 303 can pitted red sour cherries, drained (reserve liquid), 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, ½ cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon red vegetable food coloring for richer, deeper color, 1 package packaged pastry mix.

In heavy skillet or cake pan, melt butter or margarine and add brown sugar. Mix cherries with vegetable food coloring and pack in pan closely. Prepare pastry mix according to instructions on package and spoon batter over cherries. Mix together lightly but thoroughly. Bake for about 25 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) Remove from pan when cool. Serve with a sauce made by boiling down the liquid drained from the cherries to half the original quantity, adding sugar to sweeten.

Flavor Tarts With Pumpkin

After a massive Thanksgiving meal, many people hope for a light dessert and a good cup of tea.

Make the tea robust and bracing. Use 1 teaspoon of tea or 1 tea bag for each cup and use freshly drawn and rapidly boiling water. Brew tean no less than 3 minutes, no more than 5 minutes.

Now for the delicate dessert to go with the refreshing tea.

Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts

Three eggs, separated, 1 cup sugar, 1½ cups canned pumpkin, 1-3 cup milk, ¾ teaspoon cinnamon, ¾ teaspoon nutmeg, ½ teaspoon ginger, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup cold water, 9 baked tart shells (3½-inch).

Beat egg yolks; add ½ cup sugar, pumpkin, milk, spices and salt. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally until slightly thickened. Soften gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes; add to hot pumpkin mixture, stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat egg whites stiff; gradually add remaining ½ cup sugar, beating constantly; fold into pumpkin mixture. Pour into tart shells, chill until firm. Garnish with cheese or whipped cream.

There a new custard flavor pie filling. It's main virtue is its easy preparation. You may want to try it as a base for your pumpkin pie.

Pumpkin Pie

One package custard flavor pie filling, 1 cup canned pumpkin (solid pack), ¼ cup dark brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ⅛ teaspoon ginger, 1¾ cups milk, 2 slightly beaten egg yolks, 1 baked 8-inch pastry shell.

Empty custard pie filling into a saucepan. Add pumpkin, brown sugar, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and ginger. Add milk, gradually, stirring constantly to keep mixture smooth. Cook over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil; boil for 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir hot pudding slowly into egg yolks. Cook about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally to keep mixture smooth. Pour into pastry shell. Chill until firm, about 4 hours, If desired, top with whipped cream and sprinkle with nutmeg.

Big Turkey Crop

A bigger turkey crop this year and lower prices — that's Thanksgiving news. Turkeys of all sizes, yes. But big birds will be in larger numbers. The big fellows are a better buy because they have more meat in proportion to bone and are lower in price per pound.

There will be an unusually large numer of tom turkeys this year. The belief that hen turkeys are better eating than toms is not backed up by current United States Department of Agriculture research. Today, modern feeding and care and selection of better breeds, assures high quality meat in toms as well as hens.

Therefore, if your family is large if your oven is big enough, and your refrigerator or freezer spacious, your wisest buy this Thanksgiving will be a big tom.

In Amherst, Mass., on the edge of the hilly campus, the Lord Jeffery Inn will serve a lordly Thanksgiving dinner. There will be this oyster stuffing in the turkey:

Oyster Stuffing

One and one-half pints oysters, 10 cups course bread crumbs, 2 cups finely diced celery, 2 medium chopped onions, 1 cup butter or other fat, 4 teaspoons poultry seasoning, 1 pint chicken or turkey stock.

Moisten bread crumbs with the stock and let stand. Saute oysters lightly in butter or margarine until partly cooked. Remove oysters and add them to the bread crumbs. Saute onions and celery in same butter or margarine until cooked but not brown. When cooked add poultry seasoning. Add to oysters and bread crumbs and mix thoroughly. If a more compact stuffing is desired, more chicken or turkey stock may be used.

Fresh Vegetables Make Thanksgiving

Fresh vegetables are essential to the perfect Thanksgiving dinner. But cook them interestingly and use them in tempting combinations.

Here are some surprisingly delicious vegetable combinations, perfect for the family feast:

1. Savory Baked Onions: Place small white onions in a casserole, sprinkle with a blend of brown sugar, nutmeg and cloves. Dot with butter or margarine. Cover and bake until almost tender. Sprinkle with slivers of blanched almonds. Place under broiler to brown. Garnish with fresh parsley.

2. Turnips and Carrots with Sauteed Mushrooms. Diced turnips and sliced carrots cooked in chicken or turkey stock, drained and tossed with sauteed mushrooms.

3. Squash Souffle: Mashed cooked Hubbard or butternut squash seasoned with salt, black pepper, a little sugar, mace and butter or margarine and blended with egg yolks into which egg whites are folded. Bake in a souffle dish.

4. Diced Rutabaga and Potato in Sour Cream: Heat diced rutabaga and potatoes, add sour cream and minced onion and heat over low heat only until hot. Garnish with fresh parsley.

5. Rutabaga, Potato and Bacon Casserole. Alternating layers of diced cooked rutabagas and potatoes in a casserole sprinkled with crumbled crisp bacon. Bake and garnish with bacon strips.

Coffee Cake Summons Late Risers to Breakfast

Whether you take advantage of the current apple season or use canned apples, breakfast coffee cake garnished with sliced apples heavily crested with brown sugar will urge family sleepy-heads to rise.

The tantalizing aroma of freshly baked fruit will drift lazily through the house and eliminate the need for an alarm clock in summoning the household to the table.

To prepare the coffee cake, use 1 cup sifted all purpose flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 egg, ¼ cup milk, about, 2½ cups (1 can) sliced apples, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, ¼ cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and sugar. Cut in butter or margarine with two knives or pastry blender. Beat egg; add. Add enough milk to make soft dough. Spread out in greased 8" x 8" x 2" pan. Drain liquid from canned apples. Place sliced apples in rows on dough; sprinkle with lemon juice, brown sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., 25-30 minutes. Remove from oven; pour melted butter or margarine over apples. Serve warm. Yields 6 servings.

Indian Pudding Is Historical Dessert

Marlborough pie and baked Indian pudding are historical Thanksgiving desserts in New England.

Recently we sampled them at the 18th century Publick House in Sturbridge, Mass. Fine eating!

Then we asked Louise Coggeshall, the gracious manager, to share her recipes with our readers. Her answers follow.

Marlborough Pie

Six tart apples, 1 teaspoon butter or margarine ,2 eggs, beaten, 1 lemon, juice and grated rind, 1 cup sugar.

Cook and strain the apples; add the butter or margarine and cool. Add the eggs, lemon rind, and sugar. Put in a deep dish pie shell and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for one hour o until the crust is done. Garnish with small cakes of puff paste baked separately, if desired.

Baked Indian Pudding

Four cups milk, ½ cup sugar, 3 eggs, slightly beaten, 1 teaspoon grated orange peel, ½ cup yellow corn meal ,½ teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup very dark molasses.

Scald milk with half the sugar. Add corn meal and stir constantly until smooth and well blended and slightly thickened. Remove from stove and add eggs, orange peel, the rest of the sugar, cinnamon, ginger, salt and molasses. Mix well together and put into a baking dish. Bake 1 hour at 375 degrees F. Serve hot with vanilla ice cream on top. Another variation is to sprinkle top of individual serving with brown sugar and place under broiler until bubbly and crusty.

Girl Scout Troop 23

Thirteen members of Girl Scout Troop 23 of the First Friends Church enjoyed a hayride Saturday evening. A wiener roast and social hour were enjoyed at the home of the leader, Mrs. Tom Nedelka of Newgarden St.

Dancing and charades were the diversions. Assisting with the social hour were Barbara Dickey, assistant leader, and Janet DelVichio, senior aid.

Tart Cranberries From Cape Cod

The Indians introduced tart cranberries to the Pilgrims, and the Pilgrims on the first Thanksgiving introduced them to American holiday feasts. They just grew wild on Cape Cod. Now they are carefully cultivated in man-made bogs in five states, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Washington and Oregon.

These recipes come from Cape Cod:

Quick Cranbery Chutney

In a good-sized saucepan, combine 1 cup water, 4 cups fresh cranberries, 1 cup raisins, 2 cups sugar, ½ teaspoon ginger, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon allspice and ¼ teaspoon salt and dash of cayenne pepper. Mix well and cook over moderate heat until cranberries pop and mixture starts to thicken, about 20 minutes. Stir in 1 No. 2 can pineapple chunks, drained, and 1 medium onion, thinly sliced. Continue cooking over moderate heat for an additional 20 to 25 minutes, or until mixture is as thick as desired.

Cranberry French Dressing

Combine ½ cup salad oil, ¼ cup lemon juice, ¼ cup fresh cranberries, chopped, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, grated rind of ½ orange and ½ lemon. Shake well in a covered jar. Note: For a special fruity dressing, substitute ¼ cup well-drained crushed pineapple instead of grated citrus rind.

Cranberry Refrigerator Cake

Cook 3 cups cranberries slowly in 1¼ cups water until skins pop. Force berries through sieve. Mix in 1-3 cup seedless raisins, 10 finely cut dates, 3 finely cut figs and 1-3 cup chopped walnuts. Simmer, covered, for 5 minutes. Remove from heat and add 1 cup sugar, stirring until blended. Cool thoroughly. Line a buttered dessert mold with sponge cake, add a layer of cranberry-fruit mixture, then a layer of cake. Repeat, finishing with cake layer. Chill; unmold and serve with whipped cream.

Canned Corn For Thanksgiving

Canned corn makes good dishes to serve with the Thanksgiving turkey or roast. Here are three we think will please everyone at your family harvest feast.

Easy Indian Corn Fritters

One egg, 2 teaspoons granulated sugar, ¼ teaspoon mace, 1 No. 303 can whole kernel corn drained; 1 cup packaged biscuit mix, about 2 tablespoons milk, shortening, or salad oil.

In bowl, combine eggs, sugar, mace, corn, biscuit mix. Add enough milk to make a stiff batter. Drop by spoonfuls into deep fat or salad oil. Cook at 375 degrees F. or until hot enough to brown a day-old cube of bread in 40 seconds. Drain on paper toweling.

Corny Corn Muffins

Substitute cream style corn for milk called for on a package of corn muffin mix. Bake as directed on the package.

Fast Corn-Spoon Bread

Here's a fast, sure method for preparing that old family favorite: One 8½-ounce package spoon bread mix, ½ No. 303 can cream style corn, ¼ cup minced onion.

Follow package directions on the spoon bread mix except substitute cream style corn for cold milk called for in recipe. Stir in onions. Bake as package label directs. Serve with roast pork, beef or lamb.

DENIES STEALING BOAT

HAMILTON, Ohio —Martin A. Lingler Jr., 39, former state representative, pleaded innocent Wednesday at arraignment on two grand larceny indictments.

Lingler, defeated Tuesday in a bid for election as county commissioner, was indicted last month in the theft of a boat and trailer from the Hamilton Boat Club last Aug. 24. Police said he told them he agreed to let a "Howard Johnson" store a boat in a shed at the Lingler Coal Co., where the boat and trailer were found.

BUGS BUNNY

MARTHA WAYNE — By WILSON SCRUGGS

Stranger In The U.S.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Nothing makes an American feel more like a stranger in his own land than to strike up a conversation with a man from another part of the country--and suddenly realize he can't understand what the guy's saying.

A Texan driving through Brooklyn who stops and asks a native for directions can hardly believe his ears. Surely this must be a different language.

In a way it is. Brooklynese is one of many regional American languages. There are so many, in fact, that some bright publisher ought to come out with a verbal baedecker that will guide the hapless tourist safely through all the strange accents of his homeland, from Maine French to Pennsylvania.

A step in this direction has just been taken by the Charleston (S. C. News and Courier. It has just Published a "Dictionary of Charlestonese," to help outsiders understand a form of English handed down since 1670 in the venerable port city which is to the Old South roughly what Mecca is to the Moslems.

Columnist Ashley Cooper, who compiled the dictionary, makes it clear that Charlestonians speak perfect English but many people from other sections do not.

That is why a Yankee visitor is completely lost when he hears a Charlestonian motorist ask, "Cain I police pack hair? I'd pre-shade it"—and receive the courteous answer, "coarse, rah chair."

But it's really simple, and anyone who had lived in Charleston only two generations would have no trouble understanding the exchange. The motorist asked, "Can I please park here. I'd appreciate it." And he was told, "certainly. right here."

Here—skipping from A toward Z—are a few typical examples of Charlestonese and how they can be translated by the trained ear:

Abode—wooden plank.

A boot—approximately.

Balks—a container, such as a match balks.

Barter—something to spread on bread.

Beckon—meat from a pig, often eaten with aigs for brake-fuss.

Caller—part of a shirt that goes around the neck.

Cane chew—aren't you able to i.e., "cane chew talk like a good Charlestonian⅜"
